QUORUM: MET 30/43 Present

1ST TREASURER REPORT: $9,930.39

SECRETARY REPORT: Two groups, How It Works and Hialeah Lakes Hope and Recovery, were notified of possible removal from roll due to lack of attendance. Motions are in folders for all GSRs to discuss with groups. Guidelines were given to all groups who did not receive one when they were originally handed out and those GSRs also signed for their copy.

CHAIRS REPORT: Explained to GSRs that they should review the Reginal Motions with the group and bring it back to the next ASC in March. The votes would be tallied and taken back to region to present our vote for North Dade.

ENTERTAINMENT: Announced the BHM 70s party that will be held on February 22 at the Brownsville Culinary Arts Academy from 7pm to 11pm. 65 tickets were sold and there are 35 tickets left.

HELPLINE: Committee met with 5/12 members present and they discussed the Unity Day event. All phone line shifts are being covered and they are receiving more calls and every member are happy with the services. Welcomed one new member (Leroy).

MEETING LIST: Absent due to death in the family.

OUTREACH: Had their first meeting at Little River in the back room. The meeting went well and they addressed a few issues on how to bring meetings to the sick addicts at their homes. Visited a few meetings like ladies Rap and Soothing Sundays to see how they could assist with filling a few positions and improving attendance. They will begin working on traditions March 1st.

24-HOUR ROOM: Debra B. reappointed as the 24-hour room Chair.

H&I: 14 facilities are being covered; 13 panel chairs were present; Camillus house cut their meetings down to 4/week; people needed to take meeting to Harbor Village on alternating Mondays from 7-8pm; a new location, Fellowship House, Monday – Friday 7-8; and Here's Help alternate Saturdays from 7-8. Metro West is still accepting volunteers to share. It is a 2-week process to get clearance and Miami Dade Detention Center is working on allowing H&I to bring meetings to TGK.

LITERATURE: $786.89, $52.64 tax $839.53 total for January. Only back order for noon comers ordered 10 Just For Today that they needed for their anniversary and only had 10 on hand. Used those to fill the orders that was needed for today and will be placing the order for March early to include the order for Noon Comers so they will have their books for the anniversary.
