Competition Categories:

Preliminaries (first part)

This part will determine the Top 15 semi finalist for the Presentation Show. All contestants will undergo the Preliminary Interviews, Evening Gown and Casual Wear.

Preliminary Personal Interview:

All delegates must possess excellent conversational skill. She must be able to express herself with clarity and diplomacy and exude a friendly and inviting personality.

Interview Details:

Each contestant participates in an individual 3-5 minute interview with our panel of judges. There are typically 5-7 judges on a panel. Interview will begin with a 30 second self-introduction. The body of the interview will be a combination of questions from information given on your fact sheet as well as current events... (This can be anything from war to reality TV questions to questions about your platform.) The interview concludes with a 30 second opportunity to make a final statement to the judges of "Why you'd like to be Miss SK Baguio 2010." As well as any information you'd like the judges to know that wasn't covered in the interview itself.

Attire:

Wear a dress suit for the interview competition. No Pants suits! (Dress suit being a nice dress-suit you'd wear to a job interview.)

Judging Criteria:

Conversational skill, personality, character, knowledge of platform and current events, grooming, and fashion sense.

Scoring:

Interview counts for 33.3% of the total score. The judges' decision is final.

Preliminary Casual Wear rounds;

All delegates must carry themselves with dignity, poise and sophistication. Judges will be evaluating how well her choice of apparel suits her (such as fit, color, and style) as well as her on-stage presentation.

Judging Criteria:

Modeling ability, personality, grooming, and poise.

Scoring:

Casual Wear counts for 33.3% of the total score.

Preliminary Evening Gown:

All delegates must exude grace, poise, elegance and sophistication. Judges will be evaluating the gown and how well it suits the delegate (e.g., fit, color, style) as well as the delegate's on-stage presentation.

- Evening Gown Competition Details:

Evening gown must be floor length. Sophistication counts! All delegates are permitted to wear an evening gown of their choice.

Judging criteria:

Modeling ability, stage presence, poise and grace.

Scoring:

Evening Gown counts for 33.4% of the total score.

- Photogenic:

Each contestant will pose for a head and shoulders photogenic photo before she goes into interview. This photo will be taken by our official photographer and judged by the panel of judges as your photogenic picture.

Scoring:

Photogenic is a non-bearing category. Miss Photogenic shall be awarded on the Presentation Show.

NOTE: Once the preliminary scores have been tallied, the top fifteen delegates will be announced on-stage on finals night. This gives us the top 15. The top 15 will compete in evening gown (The delegates with the Top 10 scores shall advance to the next rounds), Casual Wear (The Top 5 scores will advance to the Final Question round where scores of the finalist from the two previous rounds will be going back to zero), and On-stage Interview Final Question on finals night. The delegate with the overall high-point score (Final Question round) will win the title of Miss SK Baguio 2010. In the event of a tie, preliminary scores will be added to the finals scores to determine the winner. In the event that does not break the tie, those delegates who have tied will be asked to answer one final on-stage question. The winner will be determined by our panel of judges. Scoring System in the Finals or Presentation Night will be different from the scoring system of the Preliminaries.

Finals Night (Presentation Show):
