

Resident Rights Policy

Dallastown Nursing Center & the Victorian Villa have adopted the following Resident Rights Policy, in accordance with Pennsylvania State Regulations to ensure, at minimum, that each resident will have the following rights:

- A resident may not be discriminated against because of race, color, religious creed, disability, handicap, ancestry, sexual orientation, national origin, age or sex.
- A resident may not be neglected, intimidated, physically or verbally abused, mistreated, subjected to corporal punishment or disciplined in any way.
- A resident shall be treated with dignity and respect.
- A resident shall be informed of the rules of the home and given 30 days written notice prior to the effective date of a new home rule.
- A resident shall have access to a telephone in the home to make phone calls in privacy. Non-toll calls shall be without charge to the resident.
- A resident has the right to send and receive mail.
- Outgoing mail may not be opened or read by staff persons unless the resident requests it.
- Incoming mail may not be opened or read by staff persons unless upon the request of the resident or the resident's designated person.
- A resident has the right to communicate privately with and access the local ombudsman.
- A resident has the right to practice the religion or faith of their choice, or not to practice any religion or faith.
- A resident shall receive assistance in accessing health services.
- A resident shall receive assistance in obtaining and keeping clean, seasonal clothing.
- A resident has the right to access, review and request corrections to the resident record.
- A resident has the right to furnish his room and purchase, receive, use and retain personal clothing and possessions.
- A resident has the right to leave and return to the home at times consistent with the home rules and the resident's support/care plan.
- A resident has the right to relocate and to request and receive assistance from the home, in relocating to another facility.
- A resident has the right to freely associate, organize and communicate with others privately.
- A resident shall be free from restraints.
- A resident shall be compensated in accordance with state and federal labor laws for labor performed on behalf of the home.

- A resident has the right to receive visitors for a minimum of 12 hours daily, 7 days a week.
- A resident has the right to privacy of self and possessions.
- A resident has the right to file complaints with any individual or agency and recommend changes in policies, home rules and services of the home without intimidation, retaliation or threat of discharge.
- A resident has the right to remain in the home, as long as it is operating with a license.
- A resident has the right to receive services contracted for in the resident-home contract.
- A resident has the right to a system to safeguard money and property.
- A resident has the right to choose his own health care providers.
- The home shall educate the resident on his/her right to question or refuse a medication if he/she believes there may be a medication error. Documentation of this education shall be kept.
