

2018 ARTISTS CALL FOR ENTRIES

For the 40th Annual Sagebrush Rendezvous Charitable Art Exhibit and Sale

January 27-28, 2018 at the Running Y Ranch and Resort

Hosted by

The Exchange Club of Klamath Falls, Oregon

Entry DEADLINE: November 30, 2017

PURPOSE

The Exchange Club of Klamath Falls is a non-profit community service organization continuing the tradition of the Sagebrush Rendezvous. The Sagebrush Rendezvous is an annual fine art show with a 39 year history in the Southern Oregon area. The purpose of the show has always been to exhibit and sell art, to showcase regional artists, and to raise funds for regional charities.

This two day show has featured the work of artists from the local area, the Northwest and that of many nationally known artists. The show initially featured work collected or sent to the show for exhibition and sale from artists and art publishers. Over the years, local artists, writers and artisans have added to the offerings to the public, along with a beer and wine tasting. Expanding this year, the show will include a broader spectrum of juried artists...illustrators, painters, and sculptors in all genres who will exhibit and sell their work to the art patrons and collectors of Southern Oregon and Northern California.

Funds from the Art sales have been distributed to local and regional charities, including C.A.R.E.S, Klamath Hospice, Relay for Life group through the American Cancer

Society of Southern Oregon, Special Olympics, Junior Achievement, Friends of the Children, and to the Exchange Club service projects. In the past, over $420,000 has been given to aid many worthy causes and programs in need.
