

Mom,

I'll always love you from the bottom of my heart. You'll never leave, but will always live there. Everyday I pray that from heaven you can see how much we love you. I know that you will guard me along the journey, which we call life. You always knew exactly what to say. You would make me laugh when I was sad, and you would calm me down when I was angry. Only a true mother can do that. No one can ever replace you, but everyday I see bits of you in the people I love. You were the best most caring mother a child could have, with the best sense of style. Daddy misses you so much, but he loves you so. You were his sole-mate as you said it yourself. We all love you so much. I'll love you forever, I'll like you for always as long as I'm living my mommy you'll be.

Your Hunny Bunny

Rachel Anne Simon

---