

I am truly innocent of any attempt to evade taxes, launder money, commit fraud or any of the other things I am being accused of. I know of no attempt on Jim's part to willingly or knowingly evade taxes, launder money, commit fraud or any of the other things he is being accused of. However, I also have no faith in the legal system or the ability of the government to seek truth. I am currently a danger to my children. I am bringing armed officers into their home. I am compelled to distance myself from them for their safety. Being innocent is simply not enough for the government.

With my dying breath I swear Jim + I are innocent.
