

Dear Jim,

I want to know that I have always totally loved you. I know you are the most trustworthy person I have ever met. I wish I had the strength to stay by your side and fight these terrible accusations, but I am not strong like you. I know you believe in the legal system, but I do not. If there is any afterlife, you can be sure I will be watching over you.

I love you from the bottom of my heart. I would have enjoyed growing old with you, but that is not to be my journey. Please take care of the children. They will need you.

All my love always and forever,
