

Beginner Felting Class

Instructor: Patricia Anderson

The textile art of Felting is an ancient craft used for centuries for processing wool into a finished cloth. Felting is the technique or the process of shrinking and bonding wool fibers together, through heat, agitation and moisture, causing wool fibers to interlock and tighten together forming a dense fabric with a soft texture.

Wednesday, October 4th

12:30 – 4:30 pm

Odd Fellows Hall

374 First Street West, Stonewall

In the Beginner Class,
You will learn the Wet Felting
Technique
& Create a Sampler Art Piece

Class Fees:

Member Fee: $110 Non-Member Fee: $120

Fee Includes all Supplies!

A Smock or Apron is Recommended for the Class – Please Bring Your Own!

Call 55 Plus to Register:

204-467-2582

Deadline to Register: Friday, September 29th

55 Plus Reserves the Right to Cancel Class due to Low Registration

