The first Gregg ancestor, of whom there is any sure knowledge, was David Gregg, who was born at Ayrshire, Scotland, about 1630. He was a captain in CROMWELL's Army in 1655, and was within the walls of Londonderry during the great siege of 1688-89, as a faithful supporter of the Prince of Orange, William III, against the exiled King of England, James II. Both David and his son, John, who was born near Londonderry in 1665, were killed by a party of Roman Catholics in one of the conflicts that were constantly occurring between the Orangemen and the Romanists in the north of Ireland.
