

No Picture Available

Born: 20 May 1720 Bern Switzerland

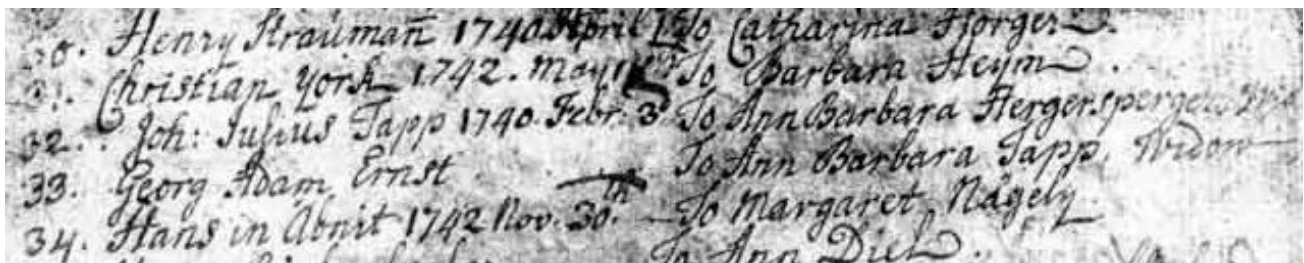

Married: 30 Nov 1742 Johannes (Hans) Inabinet

Died: 1788 Orangeburg, SC

Parents: Balthazar Nagley & Anna Nageli

NEGELY - Oberhasle, Bern, Switzerland. On 20 May 1742 Lietutenant Caspar Nageli paid in the name of the widow and children of Balthasar Nageli, who went to Carolina, 40 crowns, the customary tax on 400 crowns. On 14 October 1776 it was noted that the five brothers and sisters, Peter, Heinrich, Belthasar, Barbara, and Margaretha Nageli, of Oberhasle, emigrated to America in the year 1742. Their property still left in this country, amounting to about 449 crowns, will be awarded to their nearest relatives. (The family Nageli is spread over almost all the parishes (only has a few villages) of the district of Oberhasel). Faust Vol.II, pg.66
*On 6 Oct. 1742 petitioned for 300 acres of land in Orangeburgh (SC), South Carolina (from Holland by way of Philadelphia)?. A native of Switzerland (Rev. Giessendanner).

<http://www.ogsgs.org/origin.htm>

Copy of marriage record for Johannes (Hans) Inabinet and Margaret Nagley