II. Martin Funk, dec'd, mrd. Barbara Ednire. They were among the first settlers at "Warriors Mark," in Huntingdon Co., Pa. At the time they settled there the Indians were quite numerous, and came in droves to the little log cabin he had built. "Warriors Mark" received its name from a pastime of the Indians, who set up a mark by placing two stones in a tree to shoot at. The tree still stands on the old Funk homestead. Farmer. Menn. Children: Mary, Elizabeth, Catharine, Nancy, Susan, Margaret, Sarah, Michael, Samuel, Lydia, Hetty.
