CHARLES DODSON was born about 1649. Charles swore he was "aged fifty years" in a court record of 6 Mar 1699/1700. Richmond Co VA Miscellaneous Record Book, p.41] He died before 6 Feb 1705 in Richmond County, Virginia. Will written 11 Jan 1703; Probate 6 Feb 1705.

In 1691, the counties of Richmond and Essex were organized from Old Rappahannock (which was then abolished), with the land of the Smoots of Old Rappahannock becoming part of Richmond:

15 May 1681 North Farnum Parish, Old Rappahannock (later Richmond) Co, VA. Born. Thomas, s/o Charles and Anne DODSON

11 Jan 1702/3-06 Feb 1705 Folio 95r. Will of Charles DODSON. Son Charles the plantation formerly called [Col. Travers'] Quarter with 150 a; son Thomas / a plantation seated in a neck formerly called the Rich neck with 150 acres of land;" Son Bartholomew Richard the plantation known by the name of [Oak] Neck of 150 a; son William the plantation in Hickory Neck of 150 a; sons John and Lambert tracts of land; wife Anne; daughters Anne and Elizabeth; Exec: wife; no wits; proved by Christopher PETTY, 6 Feb 1705/6 and John BECKWITH, 6 Mar 1705-6. Inv. 17 Oct 1706, f102r. (Headley and DNFP)

After the death of Charles Dodson, Anne married John Hill: 3 Jul 1706, John Hill and wife Anne, executrix of the Last Will and Testament of Charles Dodson, dec'd, petitioned the court for appraisement of the estate. Her son Thomas may have tried to stop the marriage as he brought an action against John Hill marrying the Executrix of Charles Dodson; case dismissed 3 Apr 1707.
