Edmund Bacon

Of England and Virginia

Captain Edmund Bacon, born in England about 1641, died in New Kent County, VA., 19 January, 1705. He is the son of William Bacon, and a cousin of Nathaniel Bacon, "The Rebel," who left no son, as has been frequently claimed, to hand down his name. This William Bacon may have been the William Bacon, gent., who patented land in Northumberland County, VA., and died there about 1660, leaving all his property to wife Margaret.

"Captain Edmund Bacon," patented land on the Pamunkey, in New Kent, in 1687; was a vestryman of St. Peter's and High Sheriff of New Kent. He married 19 May 1682 in Kent County, Virginia to Anne Lydall, daughter of Captain George Lydall, who patented land on the Pamunkey in 1654, commanded a Fort on the Mattaponi in 1679. Capt. Lydall was a cousin of Nathaniel Bacon, Sr., member of the Council, Acting Governor of Virginia.

Known children of Edmund and Anne

1. John Bacon, born 1682 New Kent Co. VA.
2. Sarah Bacon, married Samuel Bugg
3. Thomas Bacon
4. Edmund Bacon

John Bacon, was born 1682 in New Kent Co. VA., where he was vestryman, and sheriff. He died 4 October, 1742 in New Kent Co.

Since John's mother's maiden name was Lyddall it is known now how the name of Lyddall came into the Bacon and Allen families.

John was married twice, (1) to Sarah Langston whom he married about 1707 in VA., she died 4 January, 1710 and (2) 4 July, 1710 in VA., to Susanna Parkes, who was born in VA. All of John's children were from the second marriage, except the two oldest sons, Nathaniel and William.

Children of John Bacon are:
