

Eglin Hatherly

No Picture Available

Born: 1589 England

Married: 31 Mar 1611 to Jeffrey Handord

Died: 1666 MA, USA

Parents: Robert Hatherly & Elinor Tanner

Eglin (Hatherly) Hanford came to America in April of 1634 with two of her children, Margaret and Elizabeth, from Sudbury in Suffolk County, England, on the ship Planter at age 46. Susannah and Lettice accompanied their uncle, Timothy Hatherly to the colonies, first on the William and Francis on March 9, 1632, from London to Barnstaple, Devonshire; thence on the Charles to Plymouth, Massachusetts, on April 10, 1632.

In The Pioneers of Massachusetts it is written that Eglin Hanford was admitted to the congregation in Scituate on November 21, 1635. Her brother was Timothy Hatherly who founded the town of Scituate on the coast of what is now Massachusetts.

Information from online research at: Ancestry.com

From Passenger list of the ship Planter

"22 Mareij 1634. Theis under written names are to be imbarqued in ye Planter Nico.Trarice Mr bound for New England p Certificate from Stepney pish, and Attestacon from St Tho: Jay, Mr Simon Muskett 2 Justices of the Peace. the Men have taken the oaths of Supremacie & Allegeance"

The Planter, under Master Nicholas Trerice/Travice, the Planter sailed from London April 2 or 11, 1635, arriving at Boston June 7, 1635. Hotten has Trarice, Nico for the master.

Hanford, Mrs. Eylin 46, of Fremington, Devon

Hanford, Margaret 16

Hanford, Elizabeth 14

<http://www.packrat-pro.com/ships/planter.htm>