Sir Richard 11 Lord of Sutton (1536-1588). He was the 2nd Lord East Sutton in 1575. He married before 1554 to Joan Marten. Richard married second, 1569 in East Sutton, Kent, England, to Mary (Marie) Scott, born abt 1548 (1553). Scotts Hall, Kent, England, (daughter of Sir Reginald Scott and Mary Tuke). Mary died abt 1605, and is buried in All Saints, Maidstone, Kent, England.

Richard died 1588 in East Sutton, Kent, England, buried: E Sutton Church, East Sutton, Kent, England. The ancient seat of the family was Herst Manor, Otterden Parish, Kent, in Ed II until Eliz. I when Robt. Filmer moved to Little Charleton, E. Sutton.

Mary was older when married to Laurence Washington (ancestor of George Washington) and had no issue. She was referred to, in her son John Argall's Will, as Lady Argall.

Ian Argall Notes: Richard was the eldest son and heir of Thomas Argall.

WILLS: Kent Archives Office (T201/14), 1588. PCC have copy of Will (25 Leicester) (PROB 11/73, pages 192 - 194), plus another grant of administration on 17 October 1607.

Richard supposedly purchased East Sutton Park, near Maidstone in Kent, from John Tufton of Hothfield, but more likely inherited the estate from his father. Was married twice. Memorial in East Sutton Church reads:

"Richard Argall of East Sutton in the County of Kent, Esquire, deceased Anno Domini 1588, leaving five sonnes and six daughters living. Mary his second wife, one of the daughters of Sir Reginald Scott, of Scott Hall, in the County of Kent, Knight, married the second tyme to Lawrence Washington, Esquire, dyed in Anno 1605, whose souls resting in peace, their bodies lye here interred, attending the General Resurrection."

Member of the Inner Temple. Thought to have published a book in 1562 entitled "THE ACCENDENS OF ARMOURY", a copy of which is in the British Library. A portrait of him is supposed to have been painted and is still in Kent.
