William was followed to James Island by his brother Robert Rivers (P-514) who arrived with his second wife and two sons, Robert, born to his first wife, and George (P-510), born to his second. The entire line of the Rivers family on James Island and in the Charleston area descends from these two half-brothers later referred to as Captain Robert Rivers, master mariner, and George Rivers, Sr (P-510).
