Notes

This is from Volume IV, page 535 of "Genealogies of Virginia Families": His widow, Lydia Judkins, married in the fall of 1672 Thomas Pittman, Sr., Gent., called variously Lieutenant and Capt. Thomas Pittman (marriage contract dated Sept. 10, 1672, D. & W. 1672-84, p. 20), and was dead prior to Mar. 4, 1678/9, when Lieut. Pittman 'at the request of his deceased wife' transferred property to Charles Judkins, orphan (id., p. 201). This Thomas Pittman was born about 1614, as he gave his age as 'about 70' in a deposition Nov. 4, 1684. He had at least two sons, Thomas and William, born of previous marriages. His first wife was named Frances (cf. D. & W. 1 645-71, p. 180); his second, whom he married prior to Oct. 4, 1666, was Mrs. Martha Gwaltney, widow of Thomas Gwaltney, whose first husband was Thomas Atkinson, and who had a son James Atkinson by her first marriage, and at least one son William Gwaltney by the second (cf. D. & W. 1645-71, pp. 281,299)." Info from Gene Pitman, 1100 Western Ridge Dr., Waco, Texas 7 6712
