

William Nathaniel Harris

No Picture Available

Born: 8 Oct 1693

Married: Miriam Brooks

Died: 2 Nov 1775

Parents: Thomas Harris & Ruth James

According to "Salem Co. New Jersey Genealogical Data" by H. Stanley Craig, p. 90, "Nathaniel Harris served in the Colonial Militia in 1715, South side of the Cohansey, under the command of Capt. Joseph Sealey.

"Documents Relating to the Colonial and Revolutionary History of the State of New Jersey", First Series, Vol. XXXIV, Vol. V-1771-1780" P. 230:

1770, June 27. Harris, Nathaniel of Hopewell, Cumberland County., yeoman; will of. Son, Nathaniel, 10 shillings. Son, John, 10 shillings. Son, Jonathan, 10 shillings. Son, Noah, 10 shillings. Son, Josiah, the plantation where I dwell, and my salt marsh in Greenwich. Grandson, Ebenezer Harris, my lands which I bought of Edward Bullen, and since of the New Jersey Society, except 20 acres at the north end, which I give to my grandson, David Harris, son of David Harris. My son, David's widow, shall enjoy the said lands while she remains a widow. Daughter Hannah Ewing, 10 pounds. Daughter, Ruth Whitticar, 10 pounds. Daughters, Abigail Alderman and Elizabeth Bower, each 5 shillings. Executors - son, Noah and my friend, Thomas Read. Witnesses - John Wethern (Worthington), Maskell Ewing, Thomas Ewing Jr. Proved Nov. 14, 1775.

1775, Nov. 8. Inventory, 196.8.7 made by Jacob Moore and Constant Peck

1777, June 23. Account by John Buck and Mary Harris, Executors of Noah Harris, deceased, who was Executor for Nathaniel Harris.