Dear sir,

I write to express my high level gratitude for the honour and privilege given to me on the 22nd of June being the memorial service day of prof cele onwuliri. I feel so, not only for emerging as one of the top six winners of the scholarship award but also the fact that, i addressed a crowd of elites and distinguished guests in the church to express my gratitude to you the organisers. You were highly commended for your thoughtfulness and concern to Mbaise youths. I say thank you very much. The coordinators who happened to be your eyes here in Nigeria did very well too by being just and fair not minding who was involved. We have been spured and have decided to take up the challenge to do very well in our academic pursuit so as to remain your pride here as Ambassadors of Prof Onwuliri.

By God's special grace we will not let you down both in character and learning.

May the Good Lord continue to provide the resouces you may need to support our studies through. Once again, thank you for everything and especially for the immediate cash reward of One hundred thousand Naira. (N100,000).

Yours sincerely,
Kelechi Ibeleche T
