

WISDOM JOURNAL

DAY 7

SUBJECT: PRESS ON

Nothing worthwhile comes easy. Greatness doesn't come without opposition. When you receive something without pressing toward it you will take it for granted. The press represents the struggle. No one wants to struggle. However, the struggle subconsciously communicates value. Here's what I mean.

- Students STRUGGLE to graduate from college because their education is valuable.
- Entrepreneurs STRUGGLE to establish a clientele because the clientele is valuable.
- A father STRUGGLES to provide stability for his family because a stable household is valuable.

- A mother STRUGGLES to raise her children with good morals because good morals are valuable attributes.

If you are struggling to maintain something or struggling to get something, PRESS ON. The struggle doesn't mean it's not for you. The struggle indicates the measure of value.

The Lord told us that all things are possible to those who believe. Faith makes things possible. However, it doesn't make things easy. Anytime you are chasing something worthwhile EXPECT a struggle.

Philippians 3:14 says, "I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

TAKEAWAY: Don't get discouraged when you are struggling to attain something. Chasing something worthwhile will force you to endure a struggle. The Apostle Paul struggled to attain his high calling. Moses struggled to set the Israelites free. What has value is worth struggling for.
