

WISDOM JOURNAL

DAY 14

SUBJECT: LOOKING FOOLISH

Anyone who knows me understands how much I despise foolish behavior and foolish living. I make every effort to live wise. However, as much as I attempt to live wise there are moments where I am willing to LOOK foolish. I know this sounds crazy but let me explain.

LOOKING foolish is different from living foolishly. I've learned this lesson the hard way. Before I decided to walk in Wisdom I lived a foolish life. I be-friended foolish people and was hurt in the end.

I spent money foolishly and ended up broke in the end. I trusted foolish people and ended up disappointed and alone. Living foolishly gave me great pain VOID of growth. In my prayer time a while ago the Holy Spirit told me that I need to be willing to LOOK foolish for a short period of time.

I did not understand what that meant. I told the Holy Spirit that I'm tired of living foolishly. He said, "I'm not telling you to live foolishly. I'm telling you to LOOK foolish temporarily." I still didn't have a complete understanding but I knew there was something to this statement.

I asked the Holy Spirit to please give me further insight. He said something that changed my life. He said, "*I need you to grow. You can't grow in comfort. You must be willing to LOOK FOOLISH SO YOU CAN BECOME WISE." A light bulb went off in my head. I said wow.

Shortly after that I started to change my circle. I surrounded myself with people who were smarter than me. I looked foolish around them because I felt inadequate. I surrounded myself with people who were more educated than me.

I looked foolish around them because I felt inadequate. I surrounded myself with people who had more class than me. I looked foolish around them because I felt inadequate. With all this being said, my willingness to look foolish temporarily enabled me to become wise.

Now, I can speak to the best of them. Now, I can converse with the best of them. Now, I can congregate with the best of them. I was willing to LAY LOW temporarily so I could STAND HIGH eternally.

Matthew 20:16 says, "So the LAST shall be FIRST, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen."

TAKEAWAY: You can't grow without willing to LOOK foolish temporarily. Be around people who have more than you, who are doing more than you and who know more than you. If you are willing to LAY LOW for a moment you will be able to STAND HIGH in the end.

Wisdom Journalist

Fountain Hendricks

For more wisdom go to www.thewisdomstore.com

