

WHO SHOULD YOU MARRY?

By: Fountain Hendricks

Finding the right person to marry is not as hard as it sounds. Most people would disagree with this statement because they keep running into the wrong people. Choosing someone to marry is a serious issue. It requires deep thought and prayer.

People who find it hard choosing the right mate have failed to do one thing...LEARN THEMSELVES! If you do not know who you are you will not be able to discover who completes you. Do you know who you are?

Do you know your weaknesses, strengths, talents, purpose, destiny, spiritual assignment, etc? Analyze your life. Take time to LEARN YOU before you study someone else. If you know who you are it will be easy to discover the person you should marry.

Many people have made the common mistake at focusing on an individual's accomplishments, appearance, status, age, etc. These attributes are important to consider. However, they are NOT the determining factor.

THE PERSON YOU SHOULD MARRY IS THE INDIVIDUAL WHO FITS YOU.

ARE THEY THE RIGHT FIT?

The person who is the right fit for you may not be the best looking. They may not have the most money. They may not have a model's physique. They may not fit your ideal criteria on what your spouse should be. However, the person who is the right fit will have what you NEED.

Every one of us are born INCOMPLETE. We were born incomplete to desire a need for relationships. This is why it is imperative to LEARN YOURSELF. When you learn who you are you will be able to identify what you need.

HERE'S WHAT I MEAN:

- If you have an Alpha personality, you NEED to be with a person who is not afraid to challenge or correct you. Marrying a mentally fragile person will not make you better. It will limit your growth.
- If you are foolish with money you NEED to be with a person who is wise with money. This person will help you understand how to value and multiply money.
- If you are a procrastinator you NEED to be with a person who is assertive. This person will help you become more responsible in your everyday affairs.

Marrying the person who FITS YOU is finding the person who COMPLETES you. They may not be in your same age bracket. They may not enjoy your same pleasures. They may not come from your background or nationality. However, if they make you WHOLE, if they COMPLETE you, if you are CONTENT with them, if you feel FULFILLED with them, marry that person!

No one wants to live a broken life. People divorce one another because their spouse is NOT providing what they need. If you are in a relationship where your pleasures are receiving attention, yet your needs are NEGLECTED that individual is not the right fit for you.

Take a deep look into your life and see what you NEED. It is not only about the tangibles. It involves your spirit, emotions, purpose, destiny, health, finances, legacy, family, etc. Choosing who to marry is one the most important decisions you will make in your life.

PEOPLE WHO FIT YOU, HELP YOU, WHERE YOU CANNOT HELP YOURSELF!

I NEED HELP!

God told Adam that it is not good for him to be alone. Adam was a man of great power. However, he could NOT multiply after himself. He was born INCOMPLETE. God pulled the woman out of Adam to HELP him in the way he could not help himself.

Genesis 2:18 says, "Then the Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a HELPER who is RIGHT for HIM."

God did not give Adam what he desired. He gave Adam what he NEEDED. He needed help. Help comes in different shapes and sizes. It comes in all forms. Adam was a provider but Eve was the producer. Adam NEEDED Eve to MULTIPLY what God gave him.

For instance, God provided Adam with a seed. However, Eve had the womb to produce children. Without Eve the family would not have been created. Without the family there wouldn't be a community. Without the community there wouldn't be a nation. Without a nation there wouldn't be a world.

When you do not marry the person who FITS you, what God has scheduled for you will be DELAYED. Jeremiah 29:11 says, "I say this because I know what I am planning for you," says the Lord. "I have good plans for you, not plans to hurt you. I will give you hope and a good future." The person who fits you may not be what you want. However, they will be what you NEED.
