

Lawrence Wittner: "Are the United States and Russia Getting Ready for Nuclear War?"

Professor Lawrence Wittner has been a peace movement activist for over fifty years and currently serves on the national board of Peace Action. He has spoken at the United Nations and at the Norwegian Nobel Institute and delivered guest lectures on dozens of college and university campuses. His nine books include Confronting the Bomb: A Short History of the World Nuclear Disarmament Movement (Stanford University Press) and Working for Peace and Justice: Memoirs of an Activist Intellectual (University of Tennessee Press).

Professor Wittner's visit to the Twin Cities is sponsored by Metropolitan State University as part of the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum poster exhibit and programming taking place on its St. Paul and Minneapolis campuses. The talk is co-sponsored by Women Against Military Madness (WAMM) and Citizens for Global Solutions of Minnesota. FFI 612-827-5364.
