Summer and fall went by fast this year and with winter here I am sure there are a lot of you with hunting stories of success. Hopefully everyone is getting their equipment ready for indoor season and will be making it to some of the clubs hosting indoor tournaments throughout the state again this winter in preparation for the state indoor. Kathy will have the dates for all of the tournaments posted on the website as soon as the clubs get their dates to her. This summer was a busy one for most as always between local club, state, national and world events. South Dakota again had some great archers participate in several of these, some new and some old archers represented their club and South Dakota well, congratulations to all of you. The state 3-D was held in July this year, hosted by the Northern Hill Archers of Deadwood. The course proved to be a challenging one probably since several hadn't had the chance to attend many 3-D events. The hills area is always a great place for an outdoor event giving everyone some fantastic views along with several things to do after shooting each day. As always the hosting club did a great job making sure things were ready. The team shoot was a blast for those who stayed around Saturday evening with a mix between 3-D targets and field targets making it a little different than in years past.

August rolled around and we were in Yankton for the state field archery tournament. Archers were able to shoot all three of the ranges over the two days allowing those who did not attend nationals or worlds to see how much work had been done on them since they were last there. The number of archers attending each year seems to be increasing which is always nice to see. A quick note about this event is that we had two ties for the state championship titles that were settled with a shoot off at the longest target for the group. The first shoot-off was in the Silver Senior Male Freestyle division with Loren Hassebroek and Arnie Veen. The second championship was decided by shoot off in the cub female freestyle division between Hailey Schroder and Jessera Klatt. There are several that will agree these two young archers are ones to watch in years to come.

The hosting clubs have all been selected for the 2015 state tournaments with Yankton hosting the state indoor on March 28 and 29. Aberdeen will be the host for the state outdoor and Milbank will host the state 3-D. If you haven't been to any of these ranges I would suggest making plans to attend, let's make the 2015 season a huge success for attendance and thank everyone involved in hosting these tournaments for all of their hard work they do to make sure things are ready come tournament time.

By the looks of the posts I have seen on Facebook from several of you we should have a few entries for the big buck awards. Don't forget to get your South Dakota harvested antelope, whitetail or mule deer scored and send a copy of the score sheet along with a photo or two to Kathy for the big buck award.

Hope to see you at the tournaments with a smile on your face and a perfect score card in your hands.

Tim

FROM YOUR NFAA DIRECTOR

Hope everyone had a great hunting season. Now is time for indoor season to start. The Midwestern Sectional Indoor will be held at split sites again this year. One site is Sioux Falls at the Minnehaha Archers range. Please make an attempt to support this local club as they always put on a good shoot. Feb 21st and 22nd Register early to be assured of your shooting time. Also, the annual meeting for NFAA directors has been moved to April this year, so I will get the agenda items out to you when they become available. The voting at the meeting is a weighed vote depending on the number of state members in the NFAA. All states get at least one vote. States with 500 or more members get an additional vote. South Dakota had 487 NFAA members as of Dec 31, 2014, just 13 short of that covered 2nd vote! Lets try to make that 500 by Dec 31st of 2015 so we as a state have more to say about issues involving our sport. Hope to see you all at indoor sectionals. Outdoor sectionals are Jun 28 th and 29th in Coon Rapids MN ( a great range) May all your arrows find their mark, Shorty
