-International Awards Program-

Each year Little League International recognizes individuals for their commitment to, and participation in, the Little League program. Ted Boet has nominated Fred Flint, California District 4 Challenger ADA, to represent California District 4. All the volunteers in California 4 wish Fred Flint the best of luck as he competes with other very deserving volunteers from the Little League International Family.

At the recent Challenger Jamboree Ted Boet presented Fred Flint with the "Claude McPhee Memorial Award" for his countless volunteer hours and dedication to the Little League Challenger Program in California District 4.

-Don Mayjoffo, LLB ADA-

Don Mayjoffo has only a couple of leagues left to visit for 2017. Don has observed two major concerns...

- Batting helmets are not always worn by players during hitting drills.
- There are still teams without appropriate Little League patches on their uniform tops.

-Carla Moore Softball ADA-

Michele Johnson Mid Season Classic -
Thank you to Pittsburg Little League for hosting The Annual Michele Johnson Mid Season Softball Classic. Pinole Hercules defeated Pittsburg in the Championship game. Thank you to Clayton Valley and Rio Vista Little Leagues for participating in the tournament

A HUGE thank you to the Volunteer Umpires from CA4, CA53, and CA57 who made this tournament possible and Jim Rose who coordinated the officials.
