

Mr. Frederick is a Systems Administrator and an E-learning Architect at the Joint Forces Staff College. He is a 2011 Blackboard Catalyst Award winner and a Blackboard Certified Trainer that works primarily on the Advanced Joint Professional Military Education blended 40 week course. He has 15 years of experience administrating, developing, and programming e-learning content. Greg has worked with several Learning Managements Systems and has worked exclusively with Blackboard for the past 6 years.

Mr. Frederick started his career at the Army Digital Training Library now named the Reimer Digital Library converting Field Manuals for online use.

Mr. Frederick lead a team for the Army Correspondence Course Program (ACCP) converting paper based courses into online training courses while also inserting them into the Army Training Information Architecture (ATIA) XML standard. He also worked on the ATIA XML specification and wrote HTML standards for ACCP.

Mr Frederick worked at the Futures Center in TRADOC on Ft Monroe serving as the webmaster for the public website. He worked on a team that started the Sharepoint portal that was later implemented throughout the entire command.

Mr Frederick has a BS from Christopher Newport University.