

March 2016

“Absence makes the heart grow fonder”....so the old saying goes. I didn’t fully appreciate what this saying meant when I was growing up. Like many children of the time I spent most of my childhood in the same general area with the same people. Then, as I first went to college and then life took me to various different places, over time I began to grasp what the saying meant. Even as each new place brought new opportunities and relationships, I had to come to terms with the former place where I had lived. I have learned that it hasn’t always been possible to fully appreciate what I had until I didn’t have it anymore. Even now when I am away from the family or you for a week on, for example, church business I learn how much I miss my family and what it is about Caribou and The County I most appreciate.

It has long been true that churches like ours usually have great worship attendance on Palm Sunday and Easter while our services during Holy Week, including Holy Thursday and Good Friday, are not so well attended. There are, of course, many reasons for this including busy weekday schedules and the fact that tradition hasn’t emphasized these mid-week services as much. I think there is another major reason. On Palm Sunday we traditionally celebrate Jesus’ triumphant entry into Jerusalem. On Easter we celebrate the resurrection. During Holy Week, however, we recall Jesus’ last days: his betrayal, his suffering, the desertion of his friends, his death. These aren’t cheerful events. We live in a culture that doesn’t deal very well with death. We would collectively rather deny it than embrace what is a normal part of life. We would naturally rather have the celebrations; however, we miss important parts of life when we only live with the celebrations.

What would it mean to us if Jesus wasn’t part of our lives anymore? What I have learned over time is that for the Palm Sunday and Easter celebrations to have the most meaning and power, I need to journey with Jesus through the events of his last days. Getting inside the story allows me to begin to see what he went through. Over time I see more fully what it was that he did on our behalf—reconciling us to God. I see in the grief of Jesus’ family and disciples after Jesus’ death what it was he meant to them when he was no longer present with them. In the same way that an improbable celebration (like hearing you are cancer free after thinking you weren’t going to live) is all the more joyful, so celebrating Jesus’ resurrection is all the more powerful when we understand how improbable it would have appeared to be.

My prayer for us this Lent and Easter season is that we “be not afraid” to enter the full Easter story so that we can enter more fully into the joy of the celebrations we will also be having in the coming days. Come to one or more our midweek Lenten services. Read the stories of Jesus’ suffering and death. Meditate on what God was doing in Jesus’ last days and ask why this is significant for us today. Then, come to our Easter celebrations knowing the lengths God will go to be reconciled to each and every one of his children. What a gift we have!

Have a meaningful Lent and a blessed Holy Week and Easter!!

Greetings from the Church Office!

I don't know about you, but the frequent changes in weather are crazy, right? One day it's cold (to be expected) and the next day it feels like spring! So many people have come down with colds!

The monthly calendar sure gives you an idea of how busy we are here at the Church. Please make sure you print & retain a copy of it somewhere so you don't miss anything!

If you ever read something you would like to share with everyone, just send it to me and I'll include it in the next Newsletter. I try to get the Newsletter completed and printed for mailing a few days before the end of each month, so just keep that in mind.

The Basic Lay Servant Course will be offered at Grant Memorial on April 17th and 24th and May 1st, 15th and 22nd. These are all Sundays (skipping Mother's Day.) The class is at 3:00PM and will last about an hour and a half. The cost is $25 and checks should be made out to the Northern Maine District UMC. The enrollment form is provided later in this Newsletter and is due by March 27th.

Until next month.....

CHURCH COUNCIL MINUTES 2-18-16

ATTENDEES: Diane McDonough (Chair), Claire Hodgkins, Shirley Bowman, Judi Greenier, Rev. Tim Wilcox, David W. DeMerchant, Debbie Barnes, Bobbi Pelletier, and Neal Genz

The meeting came to order at 6:30 PM in the church kitchen with Rev. Tim giving a brief prayer. The Council voted to accept the minutes of the January meeting as printed and published. Then Diane McDonough called for the Committee reports as follows:

CLUSTER: Rev. Tim reported there would be a District Youth Rally on March 12th at the Bangor First UMC. A meal will be served. The Keynote speaker will be the Rev. Kermit Moss. It was unclear if any youth from Gray Memorial would attend. There will be one Lenten Cluster Service on March 6th at the Limestone UMC at 4 PM with potluck supper afterward. It will not include a Healing service. Contact Pastor Steve if you wish to attend. Also, Julie Weston, Music Director for Limestone UMC has invited anyone who wishes to participate in special music. Just let her know so she can better select music for the event. She can be reached at 496-9301 or email her at Julie@manausbooks.com Pastor Steve Dale of the Limestone UMC plans to hold an on-line Stewardship presentation. He encourages area churches to send members who wish to learn about this. He is planning to do this after April 15th and will prepare a brochure to pass out to interested members. The Cluster has decided to move its monthly meeting to the first Thursday in the month starting March 3rd because it is hard for some to attend on Saturdays. A Healing Service will be held at the Houlton UMC at 4 PM on Feb. 28th with a potluck supper to follow.

Advanced Lay Servant classes can be found on line at www.beadisciple.com . Also please be thinking of possible nominations for the Social Action award for 2016.

Various Church Activities:

March 12, 2016 – Youth Rally at Bangor First UMC

April 10-11, 2016 – Northern District Clergy Retreat. (Afternoon Sunday through afternoon Monday)

June 4, 2016 – 1:00pm - Farewell service for Rev. Dr. Pat MacHugh at Orono UMC

The Cluster would like more participation by the lay members.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Judi Greenier reported that the Caribou Ecumenical Food Pantry board plans a Spaghetti Supper on April 9th at the Assembly of God Fellowship Hall to raise funds for the Pantry. Tickets are available from Judi or Bobbi and are $10 for adults and $6 for children under 10 years of age. Volunteers are needed and will be given specific assignments so the event runs smoothly. To volunteer just contact either Judi or Bobbi for information. Gray Memorial will be asking for Pantry volunteers for the month of May.

EDUCATION: The teaching staff is very happy with the new materials and the Committee is considering using laptops and/or iPads in the future. Attendance numbers have varied recently. The Confirmation class and its mentors are in place and will go through the end of May. Since the class will meet after church, Rev. Tim approached UMW to provide a light lunch sometime during their class sessions. Bobbi asked if there could be a schedule provided so others can sign up to provide a light lunch and give the list to Tim. There are 3 enrolled in the Confirmation Class.

Bobbi mentioned that Michele came into the office with some money for the Youth's bottle redemption project to help pay for more flameless candles. Bobbi recommended that someone make an announcement and ask people to donate bottles or money for the Youth. The project needs between $50 and $75.

EVANGELISM: No Report

FINANCE AND STEWARDSHIP: Shirley Bowman reported that for January the regular offerings amounted to $15,424.54. Reimbursements were $12 for Discovery books and Upper Room materials. Human Relations Day 172.00

Bobbi Pelletier reported the following checkbook figures:

We still owe $2,705.88 to the Capital Account that was borrowed. In January Bobbi paid for 4 months of Mission Shares so we are ahead three months. The Committee discussed the Italian Supper coming in April. The price was set at $12 for adults and $5 for children under 10 years of age.

HISTORY AND RECORDS: No Report

MEMORIALS: No Report

SPRC: No Report

TRUSTEES: No Report Trustees will meet after church on Sunday, February 21st.

There was another flood down the back stairs during the rain storm. Fortunately it was discovered and cleaned up soon.

UMM: Neal Genz reported that the UMM held its monthly breakfast and meeting on Jan 23rd. After a wonderful breakfast, guest speaker, Sue White, did a very informative overview presentation on the new proposed school for RSU 39. It included the process they went through from funding to site. There were 7 architects interested in the project from which they had to choose. As it was Ken Peters' birthday, the men sang "Happy Birthday" to him. The men discussed the upcoming Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper and the need for volunteers. Michele Sterner's Youth would be asked to help out. The proceeds from the supper will be kept in the UMM treasury as funds are low. Ralph Furgeson will build a cabinet to house the AED which will hang below the clock in the Fellowship Hall. Roy Alden reminded the group of the need to clean out the storage shed. Some items might be put in the City-Wide Yard Sale and anything of no value will be hauled away. The Council warned Neal that there were some items in storage that must not be sold or hauled away such as the collapsible stable, chairs, Cookie Booth lattice backdrop, etc.

UMW: The Committee discussed providing refreshments for the Parsonage Open House on Feb. 14th with volunteers signing up to bring specific food items. Preliminary plans were discussed for the Boiled Dinner being held March 12th and Phyllis Billing will be calling members for food items. There will be a sign up poster for workers to help with the dinner. The Committee has asked Michele for the Youth's help also. If they participate the UMW will donate money towards the Camp Mechuwana Camps this summer. UMW also talked a little about the Holy Week menu for Good Friday's meal on March 25th. So far we will offer Fish Chowder and Pea Soup; Gwen will do another type of soup—looking for a recipe! The Jennie Lyon Circle and the Prayer Shawl Ministry won't meet until March. Lastly, UMW received a brochure regarding a church cookbook project which the Committee has decided to sponsor. A planning kit was ordered and received. They will announce the project soon and solicit recipes. UMW hopes to have a cookbook published and ready for sale by early fall.

WORSHIP: The new digital piano has arrived. We plan to keep it locked when not in use. We also plan to get a cover for it. Donations have already started coming in and we plan a special piano fund offering on each Communion Sunday until the cost has been met. March is Women's History Month. The Church service will honor one of four women who have contributed greatly to the history of this church. These chosen women include Jennie Lyon, Emily Milton, Jean Turner, and Bessie Gray.

Special Sundays in March are:

March 6	One Great Hour of Sharing
	Communion/offering for One Great Hour of Sharing
	Offering for digital piano

March 13 Girl Scout Sunday
 March 20 Palm Sunday
 March 27 Easter Sunday – Easter Sunrise service – Breakfast TBA

PASTOR'S TIME: Rev. Tim thanked the UMW for the refreshments and help in making for a very successful Open House celebration to show off all the work done in preparation of the new pastor and his family which was much appreciated. Tamara Wilcox worked to put the new light in the bathroom and a new doorbell on the front door. Michele is planning to announce a family movie night soon and other events in the future. Scott Branscom refitted the door to Tim's office and will be making other carpentry additions when he is available. Norma Thompson's grandniece will be coming to give testimony at a future service about her experience at Mechuwana. Confirmation classes are being held from noon to 2 PM after church on most Sundays through May, but this Sunday it will run from 11:30 AM to 3:30 PM as a double class. Among other experiences, Rev. Tim plans to take the class to a funeral home for a tour at some point. Camp Mechuwana summer camp schedule is out. Rev. Tim suggested it would be nice for those over 55 to go to the "Golden Oldies" camp. Mardi Gras service was well received and Tim wants to do other alternative services in the future. The Lenten Study is going well.

OTHER: Diane McDonough expressed a wish to have a retreat to do planning for the future goals of the church.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 7:25 PM.

Respectfully submitted by Claire Hodgkins, Secretary
