

Your Love Hits The Spot

Lyric by: Martin H. Samuel love left me empty and cold but your love is worth all the gold in Fort Knox

love dealt me a losing hand but your love can break the bank you're so hot

down and out you pick me up on a losing streak you bring me luck high and dry you set me straight you're my ace

your love hits the spot like a millionaire your love hits the spot so precious so rare your love hits the spot like a millionaire when I'm down and out out you pick me up your love hits the spot love left me empty and bare but your love is worth all the shares on wall street where nobody cares

love left me down and out but on your love I can count it's all I've got

your love hits the spot when I'm down and out you pick me up your love hits the spot

your love hits the spot when I'm down and out

your love hits the spot - your love hits the spot

your love hits the spot when I'm down and out
you pick me up your love hits the spot
