6. MEMBERSHIP CLASSIFICATION

Persons applying for membership in the Court Reporters' Association of Ontario must meet at least one of the qualifications listed below for either General Member or Associate Member. Continued Certification with the Association is contingent on maintaining current membership.

GENERAL MEMBER – I hereby apply for General Membership in CRAO. I am a *practising reporter in Ontario Province. My cheque for $85.00 is enclosed.

GENERAL MEMBER Plus Listing– I hereby apply for General Membership ($85.00) and a listing in the Public Directory ($25.00) at www.crao.ca. I am a *practising reporter in Ontario Province. My cheque for $110.00 is enclosed.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER – I hereby apply for Associate Membership in CRAO. I am not a *practising reporter and I have attached a letter explaining my interest in CRAO. I understand that Associate Members cannot be tested or certified by the Association. Associate Members may upgrade to General Members at any time. Previously certified reporters who are not currently active in reporting may keep their certification current by maintaining Associate Membership. My cheque for $50.00 is enclosed.

* A practising reporter is one who is remunerated for the service they provide, either as an independent reporter or working in a government employed position.

Please make cheque payable to: Court Reporters' Association of Ontario ("CRAO" acronym not accepted at bank)
