

Sonya J. Lacy

"If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified and meet for the Master's use, and prepared unto every good work." (2nd Timothy 2:21 KLV)

Mrs. Sonya J. Lacy is an anointed woman of God, who is blessed with many God-given gifts. A native of Valley, Alabama, she holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Marketing from Auburn University School of Business. She has also completed an Initial Certification in Early Childhood Education, Mercer University, Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction K-12, Walden University, and Education Specialist in Teacher Leadership, Mercer University.

Mrs. Lacy served faithfully as the Coordinator of the Children's Ministry at Beulah Missionary Baptist Church in Decatur, GA for 15 years under the leadership of Pastor Jerry D. Black. During her season at Beulah she was entrusted as the Chair of the Board of Christian Education, President of the Glenda J. Black Ministers' Wives Guild, and participated in leadership in an array of ministry opportunities. She also served as the Fifth District Children's Coordinator. Mrs. Lacy is currently the Director of Christian Education for the House of Change Ministry in Riverdale, GA under the leadership of Rev. John R. Lacy, Senior Pastor. Her servanthood extends beyond her church family to include the an appointment as the Northern Region Youth Department Director of the General Missionary Baptist Convention of GA, INC. Mrs. Lacy is an instructor for the GMBC of GA, INC., Congress of Christian Education, and has served as an instructor of the National Congress of Christian Education an auxiliary to the National Baptist Convention.

Mrs. Lacy is gifted Christian Educator, a chosen disciple of Christ and a dedicated community servant. She is a certified teacher for the State of Georgia and serves as an Early Childhood Educator in Gwinnett County at Camp Creek Elementary School in Lilburn, GA. She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Upsilon Alpha Omega Chapter in Lawrenceville, GA.

Mrs. Lacy gifts have made room for her and she has received many awards and accolades for her services to the Body of Christ. She was awarded the Certificate of Leadership in Children's Work by the National Congress of Christian Education, honored by GMBC Congress of Christian Education for outstanding commitment to Christian Education and Scholarship by completing the Education Specialist Degree, named as the Mercer University Outstanding Teacher Leader, Camp Creek Elementary School Teacher of the Year, and Atlanta Congress of Christian Education Honoree. She has spread her wings ministering: teaching, speaking and facilitating workshops all across the United States to the Body of Christ.

Sonya Lacy is the loving wife and helpmate of Pastor John. R, Lacy and the mother of two wonderful sons Reuben and Jeremy. The Lacy family resides in Snellville, GA. She is a vessel to His Glory and is compassionate about serving the Body of Christ through prayerfully and enthusiastically training others to pass on God's Word through sound doctrine and Christian Service. Sonya Lacy has the spiritual gifts of teaching, leadership, administration and exhortation, which God uses in an extraordinary way to encourage, motivate and nurture the faithful.

Contact Information: email: snyalacy@att.net home: (770) 979-2674 cell: (678) 557-8961