

A graphic featuring a central square divided into four colored quadrants: purple (top-left), yellow (top-right), purple (bottom-left), and purple (bottom-right). A black silhouette of a child swinging on a tire swing is positioned in the center, overlapping the yellow and purple quadrants. Three light blue five-pointed stars are scattered around the square: one in the top-left, one in the bottom-left, and one in the right side.
