Our Church is the People

About Us:

Following the pattern of inspired scripture, the Huntingburg Church of Christ is an independent congregation with Christ as its Head. We exist to love God in worship and service and to love our neighbors by ministering to their spiritual and physical needs. We desire to serve God by proclaiming Jesus and His abiding word so that the Huntingburg community and beyond may believe that Jesus is the Christ and that believing they might have life in His name.

Correspondence Courses

We have Bible study courses available if you would like to study God's word on your own at home. We also do personal Bible studies with individuals or families. If you would like more information, please talk to our minister or one of our elders. They can be reached at:

Minister

Ryan Scherer- (270)970-1620

Elders:

Dan Bean- (812)639-2326

Dennis Kibby- (812)630-9482

Activities

Join us for:

Singing : We will sing songs that will teach children basics about the Bible.

Skits: There will be an introduction skit in the auditorium as well class skits at the end of the day for parents to enjoy.

Classes for Kids: There will be classes available for ages 4-5 and grades K-6th. These classes will dive deep into God's word. Children can expect special appearances from great heroes from the Bible's past.

Crafts: Each child will have the opportunity to take a piece of VBS with them through something they make themselves.

Lunch: We will be providing lunch for the kids outside under the pavilion.

Games: During lunch there will be several outdoor games for the kids.

Open House: Parents are invited to attend an open house and closing activities at 3:00 p.m.
