- Mc Neil said he spoke to Steve Bartlet and he and his wife are willing to come and do presentation. His wife is an expert on Jupiter. More inf to come.
- Bolting Update: Hard Rocker got new anchors, and new bolts except for the old bolt at the top where there is also gear placements. Royal Flush: past access had been restricted so now there is a new anchor set up and you can start low in the accessible portion and go up 4 bolts with gear about 5.9 to the anchors to access the other climbs that are in an accessible area but had inaccessible starts. Most repairs on the list have been done so far. We have not received the hardware yet, hopefully soon.
- Stickers: Jason looked into and proposed we get 500 BHCC stickers for 41.58 at printrunner.com Voted and passed to do so.
- Reel Rock Tour update: Voted and passed for Fri Oct 5th at 7pm at the Elks Theater. Alpine club to pay for the Elks. It was voted and passed to sell tickets at $12 day of and $10 in advance if possible. If nadvance tickets are available it was voted to be $12 at the door for all attendees. Alpine Club to pay for printing for advertising but needs help distributing. Swag, Terran and Adam Bergdale, Becky Pinkelman, Adrienne Lindholm are to get swag. Will see if Bruce Junek will be here to do an auction. Jason to ask Busse and Cronin to donate a guide book.
- Access Fund Paperwork is done! Waiting for the banner to come in.

Working with CSP and Rushmore with trail projects in conjunction with the access fund Is in the works.

- Federal Non Profit Update: Zach with the access fund can help us out. Becky Pinkelman offered to help fill out paper work. Need to run past Jim b/c he typically does the paper work. Voted and passed to start the process of applying.
