1. Beans and biners – September 1, 2018

- Donation boxes received $200
- Good turn out

2. Black Hills Mountain Fest

- Bouldering Clinic for next year

3. School climbing clubs

Mark suggested that the coalition be more active with both SDSM&T and BHSU climbing clubs.

- Mines – maybe able to set up stress tests on new and old equipment
- BHSU Crux

4. Reel Rock – Nov. 9

- Joint with American Alpine Club. Split cost and profits
- Devils Tower – Explorers for Bats – National Park Service reps would like to see that short documentary shown during Reel Rock
- Presale tickets $16 at the door $18
- A to do list passed around
- Luke Ross will create a slideshow to be shown on the screen while people find their seats.
- Posters should be available by the October meeting

5. Custer State Park memorandum of understanding

- Mark reached out to the superintendent at CSP and his hoping to set up a meeting to discuss what the BHCC has to offer and inform of him of climbing ethics, bolting and etc.
- Small group will try to meet with him.

6. Extra Ropes

- The BHCC has at least 15 old ropes – suggestion was to have them cleaned, then have a rug-making event to sell or give away the new rope rugs at Reel Rock and other BHCC events.
