Where and What is Clarkson?

One hundred and thirty-one years of progress and history have passed since our tiny community of Clarkson was established way back in 1886. Although there are vast changes in the way we look, the services we offer and the environment we live in, you will find Clarkson to be very similar in many ways to pioneer times.

The values of days gone by are still held in esteem and the old rule of honesty being the best policy is still being followed. We trust our neighbors and will help them in their time of need to the best of our abilities.

Have a good time, enjoy the dancing and singing, which is everywhere, fill your tummy with some of the good old-fashioned Czech food and in general enjoy our 55th Annual Czech Festival.

Don't be alarmed if someone approaches and says, Vitáme Vás, for we will just be saying, "We Welcome You!"
