

Student Congress Final Round in the House Chamber

From 1:00 p.m. – 4:30 p.m., Christian Communicators of Tennessee, CCT, www.cctennessee.org, will be holding the Final Round of its Davy Crockett Student Congress Tournament in the beautiful, historic Chamber of our State Senate and in the old Supreme Court chamber within the State Capitol. This Tournament is always scheduled in conjunction with Rally Day.

For more information about this Student Congress Tournament, go to <https://studentcongress.homeschooldebate.net>

Plan to observe the Congress competition from the comfortable gallery of the Senate <http://www.capitol.tn.gov/senate> or in seating provided in the old Supreme Court Chamber.

Watch our home educated students as they address their fellow student Senators in support or opposition to the bills and resolutions they have written.

Capitol Tours

After the program in the War Memorial Auditorium and your visits with your legislators, your family or group could take a self-guided tour or schedule a guided tour of the Capitol Building. You could end your tour by stepping into the Senate gallery (up the stairs from the large lobby) or the Old Supreme Court Chamber on the floor just below the Senate Chamber. <http://www.capitol.tn.gov/about/capitolvisit.html>

Tennessee State Museum – www.tnmuseum.org FREE Admission

On Tuesday the State Museum is open from 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM 800-407-4324

The Museum is located in the lower level of the James K. Polk Cultural Center, across 6th Avenue from the War Memorial Auditorium at 505 Deaderick Street, Nashville, 37243

The Tennessee Military Museum

The entrance to this Museum is on the south end (toward Union Street) of the War Memorial Auditorium Building on Legislative Plaza, near 7th and Union Street.

Downtown Parking

Here is a link to the “Park It!” web site indicating all the parking garages and lots in downtown Nashville: <http://www.parkitdowntown.com/maps>

The Interactive Parking Map is VERY Helpful!

Good garage lots are the Library Garage, (151 6th Ave N, connected to the Nashville Public Library) and the McKendree Center Garage, (140 6th Ave N), though there are many garages and lots available. Open the link and consider copying, pasting, printing the map and bringing it with you.