Re: Darren Honeysett

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter concerns Darren Honeysett. I have known Darren for close to four years and have the pleasure of experiencing him with his peers, other adult figures, and teammates in many environments.

To say Darren is a 'hard worker' at whatever he tries to do would be an understatement of his commitment and effort level at his pursuits. Darren's passion is sports, and in particular hockey, and the great game of baseball.

I first met Darren when he transferred from a private winter club (with a long history of developing superior hockey talent) in Burnaby, B.C. Canada to a community representative team that I was coaching in nearby Port Coquitlam. Darren was an unknown to our group who quietly and quickly emerged as a great leader within our group and before the start of the season was named a captain of the team. He is a young man of few words, but his tremendous focus and effort make him a natural leader and a very effective player, especially when the 'chips are down'.

Socially Darren exhibits a shy demeanor, but respects everyone, and is an effective communicator. His willingness to help others and get enjoyment in other's individual success makes him the ultimate team player.

My experience as a hockey coach, competitive athlete, and a scout for junior hockey and college programs gives me some authority to understand, appreciate and endorse Darren's unique athletic abilities, character, competitive nature and dedication as an aspiring athlete.

To discuss my experiences with Darren in more detail please feel free to contact the undersigned at 604-805-2510 at any time.

Sincerely,

J.A. Michie
