

Port Norfolk Civic League
February, 2016

Meeting was called to order by Erika Nestler at 7:04 pm in the Port Norfolk Recreation Center.

Tickets were handed out for the bake off.

Mike Furlow - Dir. of Parks & Rec. & Leisure Services - new to Portsmouth and the position. Spoke about room for improvement in this department. Funding is the biggest issue. He wants to know what we want. Furlowm@portsmouthva.gov<<mailto:Furlowm@portsmouthva.gov>>. Debris was brought up at the water front.

Taylor Miller of the Food Bank presented the Boo Ya with a check for 7,143 meals which is what the Boo Ya donation will contribute.

Bill Nosson of the Commonwealths Attorney's office told us that there will be an attorney on duty; this attorney will change every week. You can contact the Commonwealth Attorney at 757-939-8501 or email nossonw@portsmouthva.gov<<mailto:nossonw@portsmouthva.gov>>

Officer Truitt said that everything was quiet. Which is a good thing. On Feb 18 there will be a Police Academy, held at 309 Columbia and Slow Crime Prevention March 14-May 2 at 6-9 on Monday also at 309 Columbia. For more information call Ms Jacobs at 757-393-8088.
