Dues and Don'ts

All past, present, and future members of the Port Norfolk Civic League are encouraged to support their neighborhood Civic League. Membership dues of $2.50 per person are required annually and are due in January of each year to remain in good standing. Pay your membership dues now to ensure your right to vote and participate in "Drawing for Dollars". The jackpot for the February 4th League meeting is $50.00. REMEMBER, you must be present and a member in good standing to be eligible to win. Contact Deb Foytik at 397-7164 or see her on Thursday, February 4 at the meeting. Your support is greatly appreciated.

Program - Tax Facts

It's that time of year again when Uncle Sam requires you to file your income tax. To aide you in your time of confusion, a spokesman from Jackson Hewitt Tax Service will speak on automated filing and tax tips that may just clear up some of your questions.

"Just the facts, Ma'am, just the facts..."

The League meeting begins at 7:30 pm on the 2nd floor of the Recreation Center at 432 Broad St., Thursday, February 4. Babysitting is provided. Need a ride? Call Kevin or Carolyn Wyatt at 399-3754.
