David Fitzgerald Notes

Living Christmas

If you don't know what you stand for, you will fall for anything.

Luke 2:25-28, Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God.

Luke 2:36-38, There was also a prophet, Anna, the daughter of Penuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, and then was a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped night and day, fasting and praying. Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

What this city needs, and every one of us, is a cause to live for that unities us with our Creator.

We are a rescue center for the broken, hurting, and lost

Acts 20:22-24, "And now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there. I only know that in every city the Holy Spirit warns me that prison and hardships are facing me. However, I consider my life worth nothing to me; my only aim is to finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me the task of testifying to the good news of God's grace.

Christmas reminds us that God loves us

Announcements

Teachers, please be sure to return all volunteer materials to Kay Plew when you are finished with them. Thank you for being an influential part of our children's lives!

You are cordially invited to a Christmas Open House hosted by the Elders and their families at the home of Bob and Dorinda Schultz.
