

Michael E. Parisi, MBA
Head Varsity Baseball Coach
Parisi24@aol.com
pasadenabulldogs@gmail.com

Michael Parisi is continuing (1997 - Present) as Head Varsity Baseball Coach at Pasadena High School where he has consecutively led the Bulldogs to four CIF play-off appearances and recognized as "Pacific League Coach of the Year 2012."

Coach Parisi was the Head Varsity Baseball Coach at Arcadia High School from 1999-2003 where he lead the Apaches to Pacific League Championship titles four consecutive years. In 2000, he was recognized as "Pacific League Coach of the Year." In 2001, Star News named him "Coach of the Year."

Coach Parisi graduated from Arcadia High School (CA) in 1991 playing football, basketball, and baseball where he earned all CIF Honors in both basketball and baseball his senior year.

He earned his BA in Communications from California State Fullerton (CSUF) in December 1997. He also earned his MBA in July 2000 and earned his single subject credential in Physical Education in 2005 from Azusa Pacific University.

Coach Parisi was the starting pitcher for the Titans from 1992-1994 where they played in the College World Series in 1992 and 1994. He was "All Big West Conference" from 1993-1994. In 1994, he was also recognized as a "Collegiate Baseball All-American."

He was drafted by the Florida Marlins in the 6th Round in 1994 in the Major League Baseball draft. He played four minor league seasons with the Florida Marlins reaching Double A in 1997 (Portland Seadogs). In 1998, he played for Sonoma County Crushers Independent League where they won the championship. Coach Parisi finished his playing career in 1999 where he played for the Nettuno Indians – Italian Professional League.

Coach Paris is a member of ABCA (American Baseball Coaches Association), and BCA (Baseball Coaches Association) as well as the CCA (California Coaches Association).

His passion is being a father to his daughter, Zoe Michela Parisi, and teaching and coaching high school student athletes.

-Video:

<http://www.youtu.be.com/watch?v=3r-tVqJbkml>