Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative is designed to complement the parent-directed education of their children. Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative nor its tutors are equipped or have special training to provide for every possible educational need or accommodation of every student. Parents must consider the student's age, maturity level, academic development and the limited abilities of Arete to meet the specific needs of their child before seeking enrollment in Arete. Enrollment decisions are made on a case-by-case basis, in consultation the Arete Board, parents, and the appropriate tutors. Final decisions are based on the Academy's and the tutor's ability to satisfactorily meet the educational needs of the student and the goals of the parent-directed educational process.

Is there anything else you would like to share about your family or student that you believe would be helpful for the Arete community to know your student better?

Please list the names of those you know currently attending Arete, especially board members.

I acknowledge I have read and understand the Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative Handbook and Policy.

To insure the student has the academic preparedness and social maturity to be successful within the framework of Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative, parents MAY be required to show evidence that the student is prepared for the learning environment offered through Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative. Acceptable options for academic preparedness can include nationally recognized achievement tests (i.e. California, Stanford, or Iowa), recent transcripts, and/or a satisfactory score on pre-tests as required by individual tutors of classes the student is seeking to be enrolled.

I give my permission for this information to be shared with the Board Members of Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative and Tutors for classes in which my student is seeking to be enrolled. I also agree that this information may be shared, on a need to know basis, with the Study Hall and Lunch Room Monitors if the student participates in these activities.

I have answered these questions honestly and to the fullest extent of my knowledge. I understand that failure to represent accurate information is considered ground for immediate dismissal of my child from Arete Christian Homeschool Cooperative.
