

Lamar Lynn

Lamar Lynn is a Youth Development Specialist at Alternatives. From 2010-2014, he served as an AmeriCorps member with the agency, facilitating several youth programs dealing with creativity and social and emotional development. Through this service experience, he realized his true calling and passion for working with youth, and in 2016 He joined the Alternatives staff Lamar is currently working with Hampton City Schools 21st century programs.