

Charles Robinson

Charles joined the Alternatives staff as a Youth Development Coordinator in 2014. Prior to coming to Alternatives, Charles worked for the City of Hampton, often partnering with Alternatives staff on projects and programs for youth. Through his partnership with Alternatives, Charles noticed the relentless zeal of Alternatives staff to see youth positively engaged, motivating him to work for Alternatives one day. Charles is currently an Assistant Manager overseeing Alternatives' Hampton and Newport News 21st Century programming. Charles earned his B.S. from Hampton University and his M.A. from Liberty University. Charles is also a published author. He loves to collect books, quotes, and pens!
