BACKPACK MEALS

THERE ARE ACTUALLY CHILDREN IN GREENWOOD WHO DON'T HAVE FOOD TO EAT
OVER THE WEEKEND.

Looking for a way to make a difference to a child? Think about supporting the Backpack Meals Ministry. It costs $30.00 a month to provide food to a child so that they can eat each weekend. For $30.00/month you can ensure that a child doesn't go hungry.

Contact Debra Robinson or Fran Brown if you are willing to support a child.

Greetings to the Saints of St. Mark!

To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven. (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

There is something about September that brings a wind of change to the air. It causes us to lean forward because new possibilities are on the horizon. For many it's connected to children and the changes to their lives that affect our own. It's a move into first-grade as a six-year old or the transition from Middle School to High School as freshmen. Some of us wonder where the other eleven years have gone as our son or daughter begins his or her senior year before graduating. For those with graduates, this September comes with a "child" already off to college – and some families experience the beginnings of the celebrated (or dreaded) "empty nest." Those whose young adult family members graduated college a few months ago in May, this September comes as it always does, but somehow very different. For any number of families and folks there is all the in-betweens of various kindergartens, grades, college semesters and other measurements of the passage of age and time.

As September comes and school buses once again occupy our commutes to work and life, this month still comes with new possibilities. Beyond football starting up once more with tailgating and trips to the stadium – hoping that "this will be the year" for our favorite team – this change of season can spark changes in our hearts and lives as well. There is an intentionality to fall, maybe due to a change in our schedules or the weather that creates movement in our lives. And, hopefully, movement in our walk with God as well.

This September could be a great time to read a book that might stretch your mind and heart as a Christ-follower such as Loving God by Chuck Colson, The Jesus I Never Knew or What's So Amazing about Grace? (both by Phillip Yancey), Mere Christianity by C. S. Lewis, Knowing God by J. I. Packard, or maybe a fresh translation of the Bible such as The Message. Maybe the fall is a time to find a Sunday School class to be a part of so as to add some new relationships to your life and learn more about matters related to Jesus. There are morning and evening women's studies and also studies of men at those times as well. Perhaps adding fifteen minutes of prayer and Bible reading to each day might be the start of a discipline that will exercise your faith muscles. As always, we hope that choosing to be present in worship for consecutive Sundays when possible allows for a rhythm to the week and increase opportunities for further worship throughout the week.

As summer gives way to autumn and vacation freedom yields to fall routines, my prayer is that we will receive the gift of September as a call to keep moving on in our walk with Jesus and one another. After all, there are no "old dogs" here so we can all learn some "new tricks." And newness keeps us moving, and God is faithful to meet us along the way.

With Joy,
Steve

The Journey of Life

While I realize I am getting “older” it is easier for me to see the Journey of Life. I can look back and there is a long path I have taken. I can see now the different curves that make it such a winding way. It’s my journey and with the older part I can see it more clearly. I can see the ups and the downs. I can see the bright times and the dark times. I was reflecting the other day while I was paddling around on my kayak about some of those turns along the way. I found myself going back to my favorite Psalm and ultimately preaching to myself.

Psalm 84 (NIV)

¹ How lovely is your dwelling place, LORD Almighty! ² My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the LORD; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God. ³ Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young - a place near your altar, LORD Almighty, my King and my God. ⁴ Blessed are those who dwell in your house; they are ever praising you. ⁵ Blessed are those whose strength is in you, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage. ⁶ As they pass through the Valley of Baka, they make it a place of springs; the autumn rains also cover it with pools. ⁷ They go from strength to strength, till each appears before God in Zion. ⁸ Hear my prayer, LORD God Almighty; listen to me, God of Jacob. ⁹ Look on our shield, O God; look with favor on your anointed one. ¹⁰ Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked. ¹¹ For the LORD God is a sun and shield; the LORD bestows favor and honor; no good thing does he withhold from those whose walk is blameless. ¹² LORD Almighty, blessed is the one who trusts in you.

A poet I am not, just ask Kay; but this Psalm says a lot to me and many times for me I miss part of it, if I am not careful. In middle verses, 5-7 David says we are set on a journey that will have many a difficult time. The “Valley of Baka” is a very difficult place, dry, rocky a hard place. Kind of sounds like some of the paths we walk in our own journey. Then David says God provides that which is precious to us along the way, in this case water. Water was and still is a precious thing in the Middle East but if we are not careful we will not realize where it came from. Then David points out that many times we strive, struggle, crawl just trying to move forward along our journey; then and only then sometimes do we find ourselves face to face before God. Those places of strength came from Him. Those places we found safety and renewal came from Him. Then I find myself before a Holy God. Then I can proclaim I just want to be with God no matter what. If you are finding yourself in a difficult spot along the journey of life take a moment to look around you might see better God is with you and from there you can praise Him even in the difficult places along the Journey.

Peace, Pastor John

Celebrate A New Season

Did you get to see all of the great pics of students on their first day of school this year - so many great shots splashed all over social media! And, what about the pics of the classrooms - prepared by creative teachers, welcoming the new students. Many of their rooms decorated inside and out - designed as a place of belonging and acceptance. Those pics made me want to be a kid again!

When a new season arrives, it can be difficult for some to get back into the swing of things - especially for those who had an amazing summer.

Good teachers, give of their time and in many cases, their own resources, to decorate as well as supply many of their students with the materials needed for successful learning. Teachers need our support. What can the church do?

Embrace your identity! You are God's people, called to spread grace all around. Teachers today face enormous challenges and need the support of the church. The church is God's gift to the world. As a church we can partner with schools in ways that lead to a positive outcome - in student achievements and effective change within our communities.

It's A New Season - In What Ways Can You Make A Difference?

- Begin by praying for our teachers and students in the Greenwood Communities.
- Next, look for ways that you can partner with education.
- Can you volunteer a few hours to help with St. Mark's Backpack Ministry - helping pack supplies? OR -
- Would you be a good mentor? Many young students need role models - caring persons who can build relationships.
- The possibilities are endless. The idea is to be involved and show support in ways that you are gifted.

Remember, a gift is never a gift unless it is offered. Volunteer!

See You in Church,
Pastor Dan

SEPTEMBER WORSHIP

The disciples saw Jesus heal the sick, cast out demons, control nature, and teach with an authority greater than their teachers and that enthralled multitudes. But of all they experienced and participated in with Jesus, the only thing the disciples ever asked Jesus to teach them was how to pray. This month we, too, will try to learn to pray as Jesus prayed.

The Lord's Prayer is prayed by St. Mark worshippers every Sunday in each of our services and at all our campuses. Further, it is prayed by Catholics, Lutherans, Episcopalians, Baptists, Presbyterians, many other Christ-followers, and us Methodists around the world. It is a prayer of sixty-six words (Matthew's version) and with six key phrases that unlock the doors of heaven. We are called to follow Jesus. We are, therefore, called to pray.

So join us for four weeks of learning to pray Jesus' way. For when Jesus can teach us to pray – and we pray – things happen in us . . . and for us . . . and through us as His church and in the community around us.

What if we found a way through our St. Mark Children's Ministry to bring the church and the family together in order to promote the same thing at the same time for the same goal? That goal is to help children grow up to know, love, and serve Jesus all the days of their lives. Over the next few months, you are going to hear about how we will do just that.

At St. Mark, we have always valued our children. Because of that, we have continually sought ways to maintain a vibrant children's ministry with Jesus Christ firmly rooted at the center while adapting some of our logistics to better serve families as they grow and evolve each year. With that objective in mind, we will be working over the next few months to launch a brand new children's ministry, where the church can partner with the families. The church can provide resources and training to parents, helping parents take the lead as the spiritual leaders in their homes. Sure, we still have times for kids, students, and adults to learn on their own, but we also want to bring it all together and focus on the same thing, partnering together to better serve our children.

So what does all that mean to your children? KREW is a children's ministry that began in 2004. Through the years, we have been blessed by countless children, parents, and volunteers. We will be forever grateful to all who participated in and served the KREW ministry. However, children and families look far different today in 2018 than they did fourteen years ago. This fall, we will no longer have KREW, nor will we have a regular Sunday night children's ministry. As we work to create a new children's ministry for our families, we will instead host three family ministry events for our children and their families. September 9th, from 4:00-6:00, you are all invited to our Rivers Street Campus for a family gathering with hotdogs and all the fixings, ice cream, games, face painting, inflatables, and more. Sunday, October 14th, from 4:00-6:00, our families are invited to the pumpkin patch at the Bypass Campus for a fall afternoon of fun. November 11th, from 4:00-6:00, we will host an afternoon of thanks, prayers, and giving back for our families at the Coronaca Campus. We hope all of you will join us for these events. We will also be hosting several parent only nights as we fellowship with each other and seek your input into this important shift in children's ministry.

January 13th will mark the launch of our brand new Children's Ministry! Please pray for our team, our children, our families, and our church as we seek to provide a ministry opportunity that will continue to lead our children to Christ, while we work to unite two of the most powerful entities on the planet, the church and the family, combining the love of home and family with the light of Christ through the church.

We have a fantastic semester of EPIC planned! Join us as we kick off our first series, SUBJECT TO CHANGE, September 9! In this life, there's one thing we all have in common - CHANGE! Although so many things in life are subject to change, God isn't! All 6th-12th graders are welcome! 6:30-8:00 at Rivers Street!

The HIGH SCHOOL EXTRA BIBLE STUDY for high school students meets 8:00-8:45 immediately following epic. All high school students are encouraged to become a part of this small group environment. Look for much more info! HSX begins September 9th!!

EPIC STUDENTS will serve as buddies at the Miracle League Saturday, September 29th! Plan to be there at 9:30! You will be finished by 11:30. This is something you will not want to miss! NO baseball knowledge required!

THE PUMPKNS ARE COMING!
WE need everyone to help unload Wednesday, September 26, at 4:00 pm! Remember— pumpkin participation is required if you plan to attend BigStuf or participate in Salkehatchie!

BigStuf 2018 is July 15-19. 2019! $125 reserves your spot for one of the best weeks of the year! Registration opens September 9! The $125 deposit and signed contract is required to register!

DONATIONS REQUESTED

Do you need to clean out those closets and storage areas? If you have any yarn or fabric you cannot use, it can be put to good use. Leath Women's Prison offers a character building program in which inmates are taught to crochet items which are donated to charity. They can use any type of yarn, in any color, in any quantity. These ladies can turn leftover scraps of yarn into works of beauty. The program enables the inmates to develop useful skills and give back to society. St Mark also has ladies that sew for charity. We can use leftover fabric to meet many needs, both local and worldwide. We sew tote bags, lap quilts, and feminine hygiene supplies to meet the needs of many. We can use quilting, home dec, flannel, and terry cloth fabrics, including old towels. Join the recycling trend and donate your items to be upcycled to meet the needs of others. Donations can be delivered to the church office, or call Sue McFarland at 993-0238.

Highlighting Kids' World

How much do you know about Kids' World? Well, I'd like to share some information with you! Kids' World has been a ministry of St. Mark UMC since 1995. It is a year round preschool / child development program that can serve up to 45 children ages 2 through 5. The preschool is open Monday through Friday from 7:00 AM until 5:30 PM and operates with a staff of 1 director, 7 classroom teachers, and 1 music teacher. The children are engaged in activities that teach academics as well as Biblical principals. Kids' World's mission is to develop each child mentally, socially, physically, and spiritually.

An important part that St. Mark plays in this ministry is to provide scholarship money for 4 children each school term. Also church members are involved in ways such as conducting chapel or serving on the advisory committee. If this sounds like something you would like to do, please let me know. A very important way that everyone reading this can be involved is through prayer. You are encouraged to include the staff and children of Kids' World in your daily prayers. Your prayers will be a blessing to this ministry that does it's best to bless the children who attend Kids' World.

Please join us for a prayer walk to pray for the new school year on Thursday, Sept. 20th, at 5:45 PM. This will be an opportunity for you to visit Kids' World and pray with us. I hope to see you there!

Beth Kelly, Kids' World Committee Chairperson

St. Mark UMC Charge Conference on Thursday, September 27th

On Thursday, September 27, at 7:00 PM in Founders Hall on the Bypass Campus, we will be holding our annual Charge Conference. This meeting of our Church Council will be presided over by our Greenwood District Superintendent Reverend Doctor Stephen Love. This meeting is open to all persons to attend but you must be an official member of the Charge Conference to have voice and vote. The work of the Charge Conference is to act on items of business that are part of the life of St. Mark UMC but have ties to the work of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. It is part of the connectional life of our United Methodist churches that Charge Conferences are held. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call Pastor Steve at the church office (864) 229-5416.

Copies of the September Birthdays and Anniversaries are located on the table outside of the church office at the Bypass Campus, on the information stand at the Rivers Street Campus, and at The Coronaca Campus.
