Thoughts from the President...

Just returned from a trip to the coast. Such beautiful fall colors this time of the year. Really inspired me to want to make more landscape quilts. Yes, that's my passion, at least for right now. And after seeing all the wonderful quilts and art objects that Joanna Price presented at our last guild meeting WOW! I think she has tried just about every quilting/art quilting technique that has ever been invented. For those of you who love doing just one style of quilting I truly do admire you, but.... my brain goes in a thousand different directions at once. I do love to explore new options and Joanna surely gave us many options to explore.

As the year is winding down seems like we are getting busier than ever. We've already had two bazaar workshops getting ready for the coming year. The New Members Tea will be held November 1 at the Library. See details here in the newsletter. We welcome all members to attend.

We will be voting on our new officers and committee coordinators at our November 8th meeting. It's also time to work on a new budget for next year so there will be a regular board meeting following the November 8th program. You might want to bring a sack lunch or a snack.

The votes are in for our new Master Quilter! You will have to attend the Christmas Party to find out who it's going to be. Be sure to sign up soon, it's going to be a great time and be sure to bring your Christmas quilts to be hung in the Great Hall.

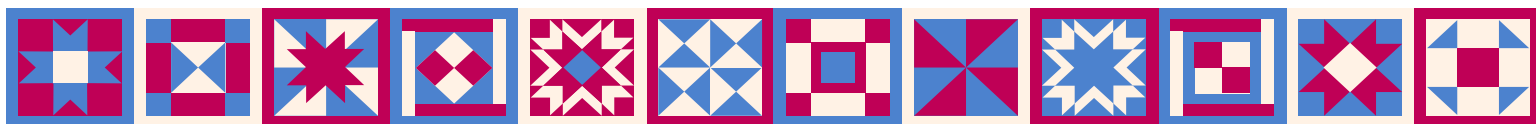

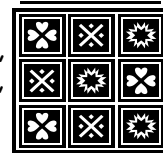

And don't forget: Time to renew our dues for next year.

Gail Smith

Gail Smith, Physical Therapist, graduated from Pacific University's Physical Therapy program in 1984. She then worked in Alaska for a couple of years and has now been practicing in Sunriver, OR, for 30 years. Her outpatient physical therapy clinic in the Sunriver Business Park cares for all types of patients from school age athletes to people with total knee replacements and, of course, quilters with neck, upper back and hand pain. Her specialty is gentle manual therapy that works with the body to promote change. She is looking forward to sharing some insights with the Mountain Meadow Quilters. The objective will be to provide participants with user friendly exercises and activities to improve flexibility, strength, balance and to promote joint preservation. Questions will be welcomed and the presentation will be interactive with the opportunity to try the exercises and activities in a safe, fun manner.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Once again I am happy to report that MMQ's finances for 2016 continue to be strong. All of our revenues for the year have exceeded budget, and expenses are well below expected for the year to date. As of September 30 we had $11,100 in our checking account and $10,200 in our savings account, of which $8850 is designated for next year's retreat.

In regards to the retreat, if you are thinking of participating, I would encourage you to sign up. The retreat committee has been working very hard and it looks to be a really great event. At this time there is no waiting list for either class. If you are put on a waiting list, no deposit is required. The total fee of $150 is due by the end of March, and I am collecting installments from anyone who would like to spread their payments out over time. I'm sure a good time will be had by all!

Respectfully submitted,
Mindy Wolfman

MINUTES

Business Meeting

October 11, 2016

Meeting was called to order at 10:00 am by President, LaWanda Richardson.

Greeter: Denise Meese (filling in for Connie Cleveland and Cynthia Gore) announced we had three visitors and one joined the guild today. Sally Wilson explained how joining the guild in Oct., Nov., or Dec. pays for the current year and your dues for the following year.

Hospitality: Diana Gonce announced that the treats were provided by Kate MacMillan, Loesje Akau and Robin Bracken.

"Thinking of You's": Jan Tetzlaff's father is quite ill and Beryl Wilcox has had thyroid surgery.

Minutes: The minutes from the September 13th, 2016 Business Meeting, were motioned, seconded and approved with no corrections.

Announcements: There will be a short, brief board meeting during the break.

LaWanda announced a quilt retreat is scheduled at Diamond Lake Resort. If you are interested there is a flyer on the back table with information. Karen Padrick also stated there is a 50% coupon involved, contact her for the coupon.

Voting for the Master Quilter is being held today - be sure to vote.

Money is also being collected for the Christmas Party in December. Cost is $25.

Program: Kate MacMillan introduced our guest speaker, Joanna Price. Joanna is from Salem, Oregon. As she says, she loves to "dabble" in surface design techniques such as fabric painting and dyeing, eco and rust dyeing, soy wax batik, mono screening, silk painting, thread painting, beading, screen painting and stamp carving. She showed us many examples of these techniques. She states she doesn't always finish everything she starts. The process is more important than the end results. She is a member of a quilt group called "Fiber Explorations" and believes you should "Do something creative everyday".

15 Minute Break: LaWanda held a one issue Board Meeting during the break. LaWanda had sent us an email (from Judy A Johnson and Julia Jeans) the previous day. They had attended a meeting for the 2017 Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show (SOQS). They are making changes to the shows requirements. The $10 fee per individual still applies. They are adding additional fees for Special Exhibits (which includes the MMQ exhibit). 1.) There will be an administrative fee of $25 for every Special Exhibit. 2.) In addition there is another fee based on the number of quilts exhibitors presenting: $50 for 1 – 10 quilts or $75 for 11 – 20 quilts. The question that is raised is who will pay the fees. After discussion, the decision was made that participants will continue to pay their $10 fee and the guild will pay the $25 administrative fee and the fee for special exhibit participants (either $50 or $75). This causes no increase to dues.

Treasurer: Mindy Wolfman reported MMQ's finances were strong right now. The checking account has $11,100 and the savings account has $10,200. Our budget looks good. She is also collecting membership dues for next year. The dues remain at $35. The treasurer's report was motioned, seconded and approved.

Membership: Sally Wilson reports we now have 144 members. Dues for 2017 remain at $35.

Communications and Website: Louise reports the system is running well if only her computer would stop doing things she hasn't asked it to do.

Program: Kate MacMillan (filling in for Jan Tetzlaff) announced next month's speaker as Jeanette Pilak, the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show Executive Director.

Education: Ruth Kinane stated the October 25th Education Meeting would feature Mardyth Peterson and will be at B.J.'s Quilt Basket with a workshop following. She will be teaching a "Mexican Star" pattern. Don't forget to arrive after 9:30 as that is when the store opens and to park on the sides, not in front. Contact Ruth by email if you are interested in this class and haven't previously signed up. Patty Morehouse, 2017 Education Coordinator, is passing out an idea sheet for next year's education meetings. If you have an idea you want to know about or something to present, add it to the sheet.

Sunriver Quilt Show: No report.

Bazaar: Michele Mullenberg stated the recent bazaar class had good attendance; they made design boards and bibs. Another workshop will be held making bra wallets and pincushion scrap bags.

Service Projects: Sue Humiston stated a few quilts were turned in and need completion, and then she will show them. She is selling fabric by the pound today in the back of the room. There is a Service Projects Sewing Day set for Oct. 18th, 10:00 am at Homestead Quilts. They will be completing 9 patch and log cabin squares.

Newsletter: Karen Padrick stated the next newsletter deadline is October 18, and that newsletter will be issued the following week. The last newsletter for the year will have a deadline of November 15, all articles pertaining to December and early January activities should meet the November deadline.

Retreat: Mindy Wolfman reminded us there is still 1 opening for the retreat.

Sisters Quilt Show: Report added as "New Business item".

Applique: Bevalee Runner said the applique group's next meeting is October 18, 9:30 am at her home.

Block of the Month: Two members showed "Stars" they have completed.

Technique of the Month: Nancy Fischer gave her time to the "Mexican Star" class this month.

Christmas Party: Marleen Fugate reported the party will be on 12/13/16; you can arrive at 10:30 and socialize in the outer hall. Lunch will be at 12:00 am., cost is $25 and payable in advance. She is asking that if you have a Christmas quilt to be hung in the Great Hall, bring them to her ASAP.

Secret Sisters: Marcia Schonlau asked that we please remember to pick up our gifts and to take home gifts not picked up. The Christmas Secret Sister's Lunch will be on Tuesday, December 6th at Marcia's, and your secret sister will be revealed.

New Business: 1.) Julia Jeans reported the information from the Board Meeting at the break. She also stated the rules are relaxed some for what information SOQS needs by January for the Special Exhibits. She said they need the name of the quilt and the size (small, medium, or large). The requirements for the show are at least 40" wide and no larger than 102". This year's SOQS will have a theme "Telling a Story". 2.) Don't forget the Shop Hop October 13, 14, 15 and 16. LaWanda asked that if you are going on the shop hop to take some MMQ Brochures to give to the shops.

3.) Patty Gates announced the 2017 guild nominations for office as follows:

All newcomers to the guild (in the past 3 years) will be personally invited and any ongoing members are also welcome. A pass around was circulated to ask on-going members coming to the tea to bring some kind of eatable goodie to share.

5.) LaWanda said a discussion would be held at the October 25th Education Meeting as to whether we would have a November 22nd Education meeting or not. The second meeting in November is usually a sit and sew, not really a formatted meeting.

Old Business: None

"Show and Tell" and "Drawings" occurred.

The Stitchin' Post:

We just finished a whirlwind five days of "stitching" workshops with Tonye Phillips, as she was filling in for Sue Spargo. Wow, her pieces were stunning, and she has come up with a fabulous new house quilt that we will be offering as a block of the month come January. Watch for our upcoming schedule of winter/spring classes for more of Tonye's classes.

Tamra and I will be heading to market next week, which is so very fun and exciting. It is the 41st time I have traveled to Houston for a market-hard to believe! You never know what you will see and there is always something exciting. We do lots of our planning for future samples and classes, as well as shopping, and this year I have some exciting news: My quilt "Ephesus" is winning a cash prize! I was notified last week and they wanted to know if I would be there. Sadly I will not, I will be on my way home to teach a week-long class at the store.

We have had several fabric orders arrive this month, and late next month Val's new line "Jasmine" will be shipping. She has four new quilt designs that are just stunning. The color range plays off the whole color wheel, so there is something for everyone. And don't forget November 12th is PJ Sale..... come early (6:30 to 8:30am) for the largest discount.....I love seeing everyone in their jammies!

See you soon,
Jean

Thread Dancing by Julia Jeans:

Long Arm Quilting Services AND Long Arm Machine Rentals...

I am a free-motion long arm quilter that quilts all styles of quilts (all over, custom, appliqué and art). I've been long arm quilting for 3 years and have successfully quilted hundreds of quilts for customers and myself. In addition, this fall I started teaching long arm quilting.

Have you ever wanted to quilt your quilt top and wished you had a long arm to use? Or have you ever wondered if you should buy a long arm sewing machine but wished you could use one for a while to see if it's something you'll stick with? Well here is your chance.

The first step is to take the 'Introduction to Long Arm Quilting Class' held at Thread Dancing in Bend. After you have completed the introductory class, you may rent the Gammill machine at $18 an hour. There are only two students per class so sign up with a friend today.

For more information on quilting services, class sign ups and machine rentals call or email Julia Jeans @ (541) 728 -1286 / Julia@Threaddancing.com.
