MASTER QUILTERS

PROGRAM MEETING
October 9—10 am @ SHARC
Kathy Deggendorfer
"Quilters Road Trip"

Kathy Deggendorfer, from Sisters, will be the featured presenter at the October 9 MMQ business meeting. Her topic will be a "Quilters Road Trip".

Kathy lives on a cattle and hay ranch just outside of Sisters, on the eastern slopes of the Cascade Mountains. Her studio is in Sisters at Sisters Art Works. Inspired by the color and texture of her surroundings her vibrant and colorful watercolor paintings are whimsical representations of ranch life. Magpies snacking on the cat food and mule deer grazing on the petunias- all end up as models in her paintings.

Kathy has a line of custom tiles and tile murals done in collaboration with Kibak Tile in Sisters. She just finished a 24 foot tile mural for the new Cancer Center at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend.

2019 SISTERS OUTDOOR QUILT SHOW

The theme for the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show 2019 is... Baskets of Plenty - use your creativity and imagination. A basket, basket weave, Cornucopia on the Thanksgiving table... it's up to you! The only requirement is that your quilt be created based on the theme Baskets of Plenty and that the quilt measures no less than 40 inches in width or length and that the length does not exceed 102 inches.

It's time to start planning for your entry in MMQ's special exhibit July 13, 2019. Sign ups will be coming soon. Deadline for preliminary submission is at the end December. That means you have 2 1/2 months to decide what you're making, it's name and what size your quilt is intended to be. Quilts are to be completed and turned in to Julia during the month of June 2019. Part of the show requirements is that we deliver the entire exhibit together.

A $20 fee will apply when each participant registers their quilt on the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show Website. This happens a bit later. (MMQ pays a separate special exhibit fee). This $20 covers up to 10 quilts that can be entered by one exhibitor.

I will have sign up sheets available at our meetings. If you would like to email me or Susan Campbell the information that works too. We will need your first and last name, telephone number, email address, size of quilt and the name of your quilt.

If anyone's quilt is completed by December and you would like to Submit a picture for possible publication with our write up, please let me know. Thank you very much I look forward to a spectacular exhibit.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Since we've wrapped up the third quarter of 2018, it's time to look at our financial condition as we approach the end of the year. Year to date our total income is down about 10% from budget, due primarily to our bazaar sales being approximately 20% under budget. This was somewhat offset by our increased membership dues, increased proceeds from the vendor booths at our quilt show, and our 30th year celebration expenses coming in significantly under budget.

Although our income side is disappointing, just as in prior years, our expenses year to date have come in significantly under budget. Program and Service Projects have operated just at their budgets, while Education is significantly under budget for the year. Most other general expenses are right at budget year to date.

I project that we will have a net profit for the year, even though we had budgeted for a $500 net loss because of the special 30th year anniversary expenses. With a net profit we will be able to allocate 30% of our bazaar sales to the 2020 retreat, consistent with prior years. We still have a significant portion of our Excess Funds account available to purchase long-term assets for the guild; the Board is considering portable quilt racks to increase the capacity of our quilt show, and improved bazaar display fixtures to increase the visual impact of our annual bazaar. The Board welcomes your input as to the best use of our Excess Funds.

Respectfully submitted,
Mindy Wolfman

MASTER QUILTER NOMINATION FOR 2018

In a process of speeding up the reading of our Master Quilter Nominations, our nominations were written up once.

We would like to nominate Dorothy Spain as Master Quilter for 2018.

Dorothy began her quilting journey at the early age of 3. Her Mother was a seamstress and Dorothy would sit by her side and make doll clothes while her mother sewed "real clothes". Dorothy said she didn't suppose they were recognizable as doll clothes, but she had fun creating outfits. Dorothy continued sewing through middle school, high school, and college and focused on garments. She grew up dreaming that she wanted to be a dress designer. She wasn't able to complete her dream as her life went in other directions.

Dorothy became a member of MMQ in 2014 and as you all know has been a real asset to our guild. She has participated in the Block of the Month series every year making and finishing awesome quilts. She is a member of the Applique Group. Dorothy's workmanship is excellent!

Dorothy has been on the bazaar committee in 2014 and 2015 and bazaar chairman in 2016 and 2017. In 2018 she was chairman of the Bazaar Workshops. She was in charge of collecting drawing prizes for the Business meetings and distributing prizes at the meetings. She also helped with hospitality in 2016. This year Dorothy has worked on the excess funds committee and our 30th year guild display. She is always making service quilts. Dorothy is planning and organizing Christmas Bazaars for this year, her own idea!

She enters 1 or more quilts every year in the Sisters Quilt show and in our Sunriver show. She has been presented with the Golden and Silver Needle awards for her contribution to our guild.

So you see, Dorothy is a great asset to our guild! She is always so willing to step up and do anything that is asked of her. She is really helpful to anyone that has a quilting question or problem and will take time to make sure you understand.

We feel that Dorothy Spain is very worthy of being named Master Quilter, 2018.

BUSINESS MEETING MINUTES—September 11, 2018

Meeting was called to order by President, Sandy Schmidgall @ 10:10 a.m.

Greeter: Heidi Thaut reported we had four visitors today.

Hospitality: Marleen Fugate reported the treats were provided by Michelle McMicken, Terry Anderson, Mary Klein and Deb Ewing. "Thinking of You's": Betty Vincent had Rotator Cuff Surgery on 9/10 and Kate MacMillan has had a serious fall. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

Announcements: Heidi Thaut passed out a handout to all about the 2020 Retreat Registration before the Business Meeting on October 9th. You must be present to register. Mindy Wolfman announced she is campaigning for donations to the Angel Fund. She hopes to be able to assist 6 people (financially) to attend the Retreat (for those who might not otherwise be able to attend). Ruth Kinane announced that all the small quilts given to Sunriver businesses for the Quilt Show have been returned. Deb Ewing announced she is planning to attend the Redmond Guild Quilt Show on 9/22 and if anyone wants to go along, give her a call. Julia Jeans passed out a ballot for everyone to vote on the theme for our guild's quilts to be entered in the Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show next year. Program: Joy Ryan introduced our speaker for today, Tracy Brookshire. She is from Capitola, CA. right on the coast. She is a quilter, quilt teacher, pattern designer and a judge of quilts. She will be teaching a class tomorrow at BJ's called "Butterfly Dreams". Her trunk show today was called "A Love Affair with Japan". She has attended the Tokyo Quilt Festival in Japan several times and shared photos of exquisite quilts shown there. Culturally, in Japan, when women married, they no longer worked; thus having a lot of time at home they began quilting in the late 1970's. They have come a long way since then. They do not take lessons from many instructors; they select a mentor and they have them for life. She spoke of many likenesses and differences between American and Japanese Quilters. They have 3 categories of quilts: 1) Brown Quilts - quilts made from antique "we3Ikat" materials and vintage kimonos. 2) Silk Quilts - quilts made with matte silk, shiny silk, embroidery and are hand quilted. 3) "Wa" Quilts - quilts that are very personal to the quilter. The subject may be very close to their hearts, or may use the work clothes of a special person. These quilts have to do with their Japanese identity. In all quilts they use a lot of applique, in the borders and the sashing, just everywhere. They were very beautiful.

Break

Minutes: The minutes from the August 14, 2018, Business Meeting, were motioned, seconded and approved with the following corrections. Corrections will be made by Nancy Fischer. Treasurer's Report: Mindy Wolfman reported the Checking Account balance as $6,300 and the Savings Account balance as $9,200. ($3500 belongs to the Excess Funds Committee and $5700 belongs to the Retreat Fund.) # MMQ Board Meeting Minutes

Thursday – September 20, 2018

Sandy Schmidgall adjourned the meeting at 10:30 am.

Attendees: Sandy Schmidgall, Robin Bracken, Ruth Kinane, Pat Jones, Karen Padrick, Judy A. Johnson, Terry Anderson, Connie Cleveland, Mindy Wolfman, Debra Ewing, Nancy Fischer and Patty Gates

The purpose of the meeting was to review reports from the various committees of the 2018 Sunriver Quilt Show, including from the vendor, The Quilt Outlet. Listed below are the reports and the individuals who submitted the reports. A hard copy of the reports will be attached to these minutes and placed in the Secretary's files.

Comments from the Sunriver Quilt Show Chair (submitted by Bonnie Schaefer)

Window Display, New Signs and Banners, Take in and Sorting for Hanging and Other Concerns: Water Damage from Sprinklers (submitted by Pat Jones)

2018 Special Exhibit Report, Recommendations and Thoughts (submitted by Judy A. Johnson)

Publicity Report with attached articles and list of advertisers (submitted by Karen Padrick)

Vendor Displays Report (submitted by Mike Carriger). There was a correction to this report as "The Quilt Outlet" should have been listed as a vendor.

Potholders Report (submitted by Connie Cleveland)

Set-Up / Take Down Report (submitted by Ruth Kinane)

Overall Report/Comments (submitted by Michelle McMicken)

The Quilt Outlet (vendor) Report (submitted by Mary Klein)

The reports were reviewed individually and the following items were discussed:

Pat Jones reported that the key for the window display was picked up from Alpine Entertainment. Pat Jones and Ona Glassford will complete the window display again in 2019. The window display space needs to be procured in January for the week before the 2019 Sunriver Quilt Show. LaWanda Richardson and Pat Jones were able to purchase additional signage from the print shop in La Pine. The original banners (without the logo) were hung by Charlie Jones and a banner was hung on the fence at the Three Rivers School with permission from the school administration. In January 2019, MMQ will attempt to get approval of the banner with the logo.

There was a discussion on the damage to quilts from the sprinklers in the front of the building near Village Bar & Grill. At least one of the quilts was damaged from the water from the sprinkler. It was discussed and decided that the wording "water damage" should be added to the quilt waiver starting with the 2019 Sunriver Quilt Show. It was noted that Bonnie Schaefer will need to work diligently with the Village Management and Maintenance to assure that the sprinklers are turned off in all areas of the Village. The concern was that the sprinklers for the lawn area were turned off, but that the sprinklers in front of the buildings facing Beaver Drive were not turned off.

Judy A. Johnson commented that most of the Special Exhibits showed fairly nicely and that they were very relevant to the 30th anniversary show and represented education, fellowship and service activities. There were problems because of the large number of Special Exhibits, which numbered over 100. These issues could have been resolved if we knew lineage of the space so we could plan in advance where the special exhibits could be hung. The exhibit in Sunriver Books was well received and a higher number of people walked thru the exhibit than in previous years. The lack of a logistics chair was evident. Debra Ewing commented that, with her husband Chuck, they updated the linear footage. Nancy Fischer recommended that a registration form would be due on July 1 by members with the name and measurements of the quilt(s). Debra Ewing recommended that people also list the importance of the order the quilts should be listed. This would give the quilt hanging people an option when there may be too many quilts. Sandy Schmidgall stated that some of the issues is that some people have been in their jobs for many years and now they are unable to do their jobs. New people taking these jobs over are not aware of all they are required to do. Getting back to a Chair and an Assistant Chair (who takes over for the Chair the following year) is very important.

Thursday - September 20, 2018

Debra Ewing commented that the Logistics Chair should be broken into several positions. The importance of writing reports/instructions for the position you are in is very important so there can be continuity.

Ruth Kinane volunteered to work with Bonnie Schaefer on breaking down logistics to see what jobs can be broken down under Logistics.

Nancy Fischer volunteered to be "Village/SROA Liaison" for the Sunriver Quilt Show. This would include getting banner approval and working with the Village management on the date for the quilt show and various items, i.e., sprinkler and banners to be hung.

Sandy Schmidgall reviewed with the Board the report from Michelle McMicken to discuss solutions for problems with the Sunriver Quilt Show. Several items were discussed on how to handle the number of quilts: Quilt entry form due by July 1; limit number of quilts; and not shown in a previous year. Debra Ewing volunteered to be the Quilt Hanging position under Logistics.

There was a further discussion on how to handle the number of quilts members could enter into the Sunriver Quilt Show. It was questioned whether special exhibits should be in this number. Nancy Fischer mentioned that the starburst in the Village is gone, which will give us more rack space. It was mentioned that we will need more volunteers to make additional racks. Mindy Wolfman mentioned that there is $3,500 left in excess funds to make more quilt racks.

There was a discussion on the Bazaar and ways to increase sales: new items, updated fabric, possibly a table in the paver area to show examples of items for sale in the Bazaar.

There was a discussion on the location of The Quilt Outlet and one suggestion was to locate The Quilt Outlet in the Bazaar area (listed as Vendor on the map). There was also a discussion on hanging a sign at each vendor booth (including The Quilt Outlet) to identify them as a vendor and not related to MMQ. The Quilt Outlet has definite rules and in particular must be a MMQ member. A discussion was held on the reason why The Quilt Outlet was developed, which is all related to us being a 501c(3).

In The Quilt Outlet report, it was suggested for next year that they would want to make a suggestion to donate 10% to MMQ so the quilt outlet could become part of MMQ. This would not be allowed.

The following Items will be discussed and voted on at the next Board meeting:

- Number of quilts in show: no number should be set. They can enter all the special exhibits plus additional quilts and then prioritize the quilts they want in the show, not including the special exhibits.
- New registration form to enter quilts by July 1. Form should be available to the members by May.
- Use excess funds to make quilt racks and vertical exhibits for the Bazaar.

BJ'S QUILT BASKET

Hello, Quilt Fans!

This is definitely my favorite time of year -- I love the glorious colors and cool, crisp days. Last night's frost took care of my tomatoes so I can't even pretend to be a gardener anymore, which means quilting season is here! And that means the Fall Shop Hop is just around the corner. This is our educational shop hop, so there will be demos, as well as the chance to win one of fourteen $50 gift certificates if you turn in a completed passport. We are putting together a great goodie basket, too, and maybe you will be the lucky winner! This year's Shop Hop is October 11-13, from 9AM - 5:30PM every day.

Tula Pink's super fun Zuma line is here -- get yours before it swims away! We have new fabrics all over the store, and would love to help you put together a fun new project.

Our fall classes are filling up fast. We have several bag classes coming up, and if your scrap bin is overflowing like mine is, you will want to catch the final Lumberyard classes of the year! We will be announcing our 2019 Block of the Month programs soon, too, and you can find the details on our newly redesigned website. A little birdie mentioned that you might find a web-only flash sale there, too...

Here's to an enjoyable and productive quilt season to all of you!

—Kathy

HIGH MOUNTAIN FABRICS

Open Tuesday—Friday: 10-4

Open Saturday and Monday: 10-2

Closed on Sunday!

HOMESTEAD QUILTS AND GALLERY

Well we can mark one more month off the calendar and only a few to go. Where is this year going? We are still waiting for the asphalt to be poured in front of the building so we still have to use the alternate entry.

Don't forget to mark your calendars for the Fall Educational Shop Hop, it starts on Thursday October 11th and ends on Saturday October 13th, we will be showing some great tools so come and see. We also will be giving out Gift Certificates and each shop will be giving out 1 door prize. Remember you need to have your passport stamped by each shop and you must be present to have this stamp.

We have received more new fabrics and yarns so check them out. Don't forget to ask for your guild discount on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday.

If you need some ideas for a project or help with getting fabric stop by and we will be more than happy to help you.

Hope to see you all soon and have a great month.

Happy Quilting,
Cathy and Staff

THE STITCHIN' POST

It's October, a beautiful start to autumn, and we are really excited about all of the new fabrics that are coming in this month! We have a new line of Flannels from Robert Kaufman called Penned Pals, and Riley Blake has a new flannel line called Panda Love - we think it will make the most wonderful pajamas!

For flat cottons, we have two new lines scheduled from Moda - Weather Permitting and Spotted - Art History 101 by Marcia Derse from Windham is coming in (the theme print is spectacular), as well as Conservatory and Vestige from Free Spirit, and both Aura by Mister Domestic and Legendary by Pat Bravo from Art Gallery Fabrics.

NOTE: Due to a recent cancellation, there is one seat left in Sue Spargo's Buggin' Out workshop, and two seats in Sue and Tonye Phillips' Slow Stitching with Matisse.

October is the perfect month to whip up some holiday gifts and we have a bevy of classes designed to inspire. Val Wells kicks off our Surface Design Series with a two day class in Block Printing, Sheila Snyder returns for another of her ever-popular Barn Quilt Painting classes, and Diane Jaquith offers an amazing T-Shirt Quilt class.

Remember those tags on the back of Levi's jeans? The ones that never wore out? They're made of Kraft-tex, now available in a variety of vibrant colors, and Lorraine Wilkins has found some terrific ways to use this material. Her class devoted to Journal Covers and Gift Card Holders is filling quickly.

We're particularly impressed with Katie Pedersen, a young quilt designer and maker from Seattle. You may know her as SewKatieDid. She's teaching two classes for us in October - Double Trouble and Psychedelic Baby - and presenting the third in our series of Thread Talks: Fiber Ideas Worth Sharing. Katie will bring several quilts from her private collection to accompany her talk when she discusses her improvisational approach to the quilting tradition.

At the end of June Jaeger's 3-day class called Best Friends, you'll be well on your way to a fabric portrait of your favorite furry friend. Pat Drake has chosen Celtic Cable Neck Warmer for her next class. It's a terrific project for those new to cables and will work up quickly for those already comfortable with the skill. Our Surface Design Series continues late in the month with Sharon Carvalho's Digital Mash-Up - a perfect introduction to or continuation in digital art. We'll close the month with another Collage Quilting class, demanded by her students and taught by Cheryl Crawford. If you like bags and totes, we now have some wonderful canvas fabrics available, some great new books and patterns, and Becky has been in a flurry making several new samples for us. They will be on display during the Quilt Central Oregon Shop Hop this month. We also have some really fun demos planned for you, so come join the fun!

Be sure to watch our website for a couple of "Pop-Up" classes that we will be adding to our schedule in November and December.

You can sign up for our e-newsletter on the website, and we'll let you know about all of the new things we have in the works. We will also award a prize to a randomly chosen Newsletter subscriber each month! You can sign up using the link at the bottom right corner of our homepage.

Enjoy the beautiful fall weather - we all hope you find some great new projects to stitch in the upcoming months.

Happy stitching!
Paige, Teresa, Sam, and the rest of the Stitchin' Post Staff.
