Thoughts from the President...

Okay, the year is ending. That means that my presidency is ending, too. For me it has been a very busy year. Last year at this time I was really in a panic. I had no idea what was ahead for me. I had never belonged to any organization like the guild, let alone been president of it, but the worst of my fears never occurred. I had a few bumpy spots and again they never got out of hand. So I survived.

Now all that is behind me and it's time to say good bye. I'm not very good at saying good bye. So instead I will say thank you. The problem there is where do I start. I have had so much help and inspiration. Advice always near at hand. I could just list every member of the guild because in some way each one of you has been there for me.

First of all, I want to thank my Past President and my Secretary. Two people who I leaned on from the very start. Then all the board members and committee chairs. Anyone who has ever served in any one of these positions knows that it is a coordinated effort that keeps the guild operating correctly.

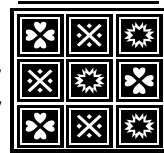

I learned a lot about myself this year and a lot about the people around me and I would not trade this past year for anything. If it was bringing treats, greeting at the door or maybe just smiling at a newcomer, every one of you have made this a year for me to remember.

Thank you for 2018 and I look forward to supporting those who come after me.

See you soon,
Sandy

At the December sit-n-sew session, we will be working on disappearing four-patch quilts.

BUSINESS MEETING MINUTES—November 13, 2018

Meeting was called to order by President, Sandy Schmidgall @ 10:00 a.m.

Greeter: Heidi Thaut reported we had three visitors today. Hospitality: Christine Watkins reported the treats were provided by Connie Cleveland, Bonnie Schaeffer, Christine Watkins and Dolores Petty. "Thinking of You's": Marleen Fugate is back after her knee replacement. Announcements: Jeri Banton passed around a sign-sheet for volunteers to work on a committee to make changes to the Bazaar. She also handed out slips of paper for members to make suggestions for changes to the Bazaar. Bonnie Schaeffer passed around a sign-up sheet for volunteers who wish to work on committees for the Sunriver Quilt Show. Program: Joy Ryan introduced the members who came to make a presentation to our guild from The Central Oregon Modern Quilt Guild. Kayla was the speaker and stated modern quilts can be identified by the following characteristics; Improv piecing, bold colors, alternate grid work, expansive negative space, no borders and many have cream or grey backgrounds. Many Modern Quilt Guild groups are associated with an online guild. They showed us quilts their guild had made in the following categories: Minimalism, Traditional Modern, Negative Space, Non-traditional grid work, Use of solids or bold colors and Improv. The presentation was done very nicely.

Break

Minutes: The minutes from the October 9th, 2018, Business Meeting, were motioned, seconded and approved. No corrections needed. Treasurer's Report: There was no Treasurer's Report presented, it will be in the Newsletter. Membership: Sally Wilson stated that membership dues for next year ($35) can now be paid. They will not be collecting dues at the Christmas Party; you will need to wait until the January 8th, 2019 meeting. Communications and Website: Mike Carriger explained in setting up the new computer system it automatically sent out email messages to most members; they weren't aware this would happen at this juncture of setting up the new system. It asked members to notify Louise Carriger if they received the message. Louise C. is in the process of setting up the new system expected to be live next year. After about 12 years Louise Yoshihara is turning the system over to Louise C. and the Steering Committee for much needed renovation (total do-over). We want to thank her for keeping us going all these years until we could get switched over to something that it easier to run and can do more things for the guild. Thank You Louise! Education: Mike Carriger stated there will be no Education meeting in November and December. Patty Gates stated the first Education Meeting in 2019 will be January 22. Michelle McMicken will teach a class on making Grocery Bags and sewing techniques on Vinyl. There is a supply list and written instructions will be given at the class. Outreach: No report. Sunriver Quilt Show: Bonnie Schaefer stated it is not too late to join one of the "Round Robin's" being set up. Get in touch with her if you are interested. Sisters Quilt Show: No report. Bazaar: Dorothy Spain reported that $442 was made last weekend at the Christmas Bazaar in LaPine. There is another Bazaar next weekend. She has Christmas items on sale in the back of the room, if anyone is interested. Service Projects: Denise Meese stated the guild has completed 97 quilts and 86 more are in the process of being completed. 32 quilts are being delivered on Thursday. In January she will give a full report on where all the quilts were distributed. A pass-out sheet was circulated for members to make suggestions for choice of next years' Service Charities. She will compile the list and a vote will be taken in January.

TREASURER'S REPORT

I have a pretty short report for you today- nothing exciting going with MMQ expenses, which is always a good thing! I am waiting for all remaining 2018 requests for reimbursement, so please be sure to get those to me as soon as possible. It would be best for me to have all requests in hand BEFORE December 15, so please either mail them to me at MMQ, or give them to me at the Christmas party. I will also be collecting 2019 dues at the Christmas party ($35, cash or check only), as well as any payments you wish to make on your 2020 retreat account.

Speaking of the retreat, sign-ups are going great guns, and we have 47 out of 60 spots filled. Maggie Ball's class has been changed to Radiant Feathered Star, a 2+ day class with the option of a Snowball (simpler) or Kaleidoscope (more challenging) center. Check out the class description at www.dragonflyquilts.com, and download the supply list. There are 12 spots available in Maggie's class as of today, but I'm sure they won't last long, so sign up soon! Remember, you can cancel from the retreat for a full refund at any time before March 31, 2020, so there's no risk to signing up early.

Attention Committee Chairpersons: now is the time to get to me any special funding requests you may have for your 2019 budget. If I don't hear from you by December 15, I will assume you are happy with the prior year's budget amount, or slightly less, based on estimated revenues and known increased expenses for the year. The 2018 budget is available to download from the website; the new budget will be presented to the Board for adoption in January.

As of November 25 we have $3,976 in our checking account, and $9,880 in our savings account. Within the savings account, $3,511 is designated Excess Funds to be used for new guild quilt show equipment and our new website, and $6,370 is designated for the 2020 retreat, including $655 paid to date by retreat participants.

Happy Holidays!

BJ'S QUILT BASKET

Hello, Quilt Fans!

Once again, the year has flown by, and I'm already ordering holiday fabric for 2019! There are some yummy things coming out, but seriously, can we finish this year first? Anyway, I wanted to take a minute to thank you for making BJ's a fun place to work. I so appreciate your enthusiasm, creativity and camaraderie.

We're getting ready to dive in to our 2019 Block of the Month programs, and will be releasing our July Festival of Classes lineup at the end of December. We hope to see you in a class or event soon!

Our 12 Days of Christmas/Stuff My Stocking event starts soon so watch your email or check Facebook. We start our winter hours on December 3 and will be closed for inventory at the very end of December.

I wish you all a safe, lovely holiday season.

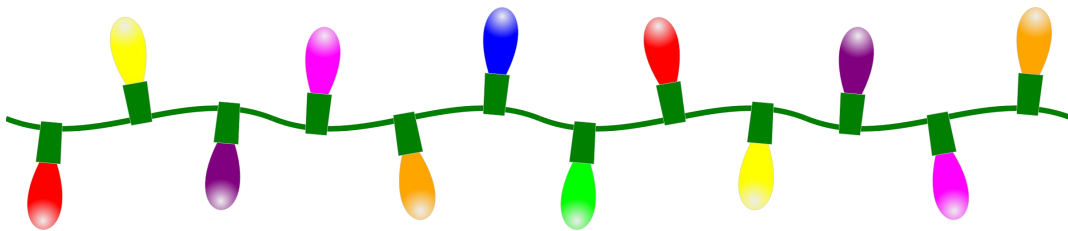

—Kathy

Open Saturday and Monday: 10-2

Closed on Sunday!

HOMESTEAD QUILTS AND GALLERY

Wow December already? It seems as the year just started not too long ago and here we are coming to the end of another wonderful year. This will be a short note this time.

We will be having our yearly inventory reduction sale from December 23rd thru December 30th. During this time all sale fabric will be 50% off and 25% off the entire store (some restrictions will apply). This will also be available for online orders also, remember we are still working on getting everything on the website so in-store is a better option.

As a reminder the work is finished in front of the building but it has taken that parking away, so there is parking on the side of the buildings.

Everybody have a great Christmas and a Happy New Year and we are looking forward to seeing you.

Happy Quilting,
Cathy and Staff

Second Saturday Strip Club Announcement - Every Second Saturday we have our Strip Club. December 8 and in January it will be on the 12th. Come for fun, education, prizes, tease bags, show & tell and a surprise performance!

Books to Quilts 2019 - QuiltWorks has chosen an Oregon author Pamela Royes who wrote Temperance Creek to be our first Books to Quilts author. Quilters are invited to read the book, make a quilt and be an exhibitor for the April 2019 Quilt Gallery. Ms. Royes will be at our April 5th "unveiling" to meet the exhibitors and will also be making a presentation on Saturday, April 6 at QuiltWorks.

Sew Teach Me - is a non-profit organization started at QuiltWorks. We match trained and screen mentors with children to teach them how to sew at no costs. Matches are made based on mutually available times and the community donates pre-cut and pre-packaged kits for projects. For more information visit sewteachme.org or come in the shop for an application.

February Quilt Exhibit - Janet MacConnell from Sisters will be our February Featured Quilter. Our group exhibit will be the "crayon challenge" from the High Desert Quilt Guild.

QuiltWorks Longarm Quilting - QuiltWorks has two great quilters for our longarm quilting services, Vickie Minor and Karen "KD" Dougan. We offer edge to edge quilting.

Thanks for being great customers!
Marilyn and everyone from QuiltWorks

These will be limited time offerings, so be prepared to jump on them!

Gifting and not sure what you want to give or get? A Gift Certificate is PERFECT! Again this year, through Dec 24, when you buy a $100 gift certificate you'll receive a $20 gift coupon. (Your loved ones will GREATLY APPRECIATE this suggestion!)

As we write this, we are getting our class schedule together for January through April. Beginning and Intermediate piecing, applique, free motion quilting and some exciting new serger classes in the works, with lots more to come. THE STITCHIN' POST

Hello,

Happy Holidays to all of you and I hope you are enjoying our winter weather...it always makes me want to stay home and sew. To celebrate the season, we've created our own Stitchin' Post Advent Calendar. Each day until Christmas, you'll receive a newsletter featuring holiday inspiration, gift ideas, project tutorials, free patterns, and lots more. Best of all, save 10% off each day's newsletter products, in store and online, while supplies last. I just reviewed the entire plan and there are some wonderful ideas as well as inspiration. If you are like me, there is always some last minute thing I need, and we may be able to help you with that.

Our elves in the cutting room are busy putting together even more pillow case kits. Each of the women who work on the floor have picked their favorite fabrics for a kit. I love the variety of ideas our ladies have. They are working on a new yummy baby flannel "quick patch" quilt kit that is just delightful-and you are going to want to check out the holiday boutique items created by our staff members, as well as some unique Holiday gift items. At the end of the month, December 26 through January 1, our annual End of the Year Sale is on with 25% off most items.

Teri Hunter is very busy putting together our winter/spring class schedule, and she is just full of wonderful ideas. Don't forget, if you enroll in a class each year, you will then receive a birthday card with a discount of half of your age...that is pretty good savings for some of us!

Happy New Year and see you soon.

—Val and Jean
