President's Message

Our DCCRW 2016 POWER Rally is in the books! Cindy Clendenen, our event chairman, and her team did an outstanding job putting together a lovely luncheon for nearly 300 old and, more importantly, new friends to recognize our Dallas County Republican candidates along with our dear friend, Taffy Goldsmith. Taffy was presented the POWER Award to acknowledge her legacy of support for Republicans in Dallas County, Texas, and the nation through the decades! Our TFRW President, Theresa Kosmoski, was in attendance to bestow this honor on Taffy.

The extra-special, over-the-top, icing-on-the-cake was our special program! Our own Debbie Georgatos hosted a conversation with Debbie and Dinesh D'Souza. The entire audience was totally engaged with the intellectual exchange interrupted only by laughter when Dinesh equated Hillary and Bill Clinton with Bonnie and Clyde while discussing the improprieties of the Clintons and their foundation. The "hil-larity" of his comparison was amplified by the "Hillary Teles" fundraiser of his comparison was amplified by the Hillary Tales fundraiser outside the ballroom – our version of “Pin the Tail on the Donkey” in which each of the tails contained a “Hillary Tale”, a lie told by Hillary.

It was a great event and now we all need to go to work helping our down-ballot Dallas County Republicans cross the finish line in victory on November 8th. From the White House to the Court House, VOTE STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN!

News from Republican Party of Texas

From Candy Noble, State Republican Executive Committee Senate District 8:

By 2019 the state of Texas is projected to be a Minority Majority Voter-aged state. A good bit of our work in the days ahead will be reaching out to voters of all types, races and ages.

Chairman Tom Mechler met with many pastors from Houston's Fifth Ward this past week. He reported that even though the meeting started out with most, if not all of them being Democrats, that by the end they were really listening and seemed open to the Republican vision and shared values. This sort of outreach and dialogue will be vital to a vibrant and growing party, and we should all be looking for opportunities to do the same.
