Dear PCRW Members and Friends,

It seems that 2017 just began but is flying by! Our 2017 Yearbook and Directory is likely in your hands now. We hope you will use it to be in touch with others in the group and even get to know other Republicans who live near you.

I hope that you have enjoyed our general membership meetings so far. We have been honored to host Nick Adams, Congressman Pete Sessions, Irving Mayor Beth Van Duyne with Frank Gaffney, and most recently, Debbie Georgatos and Wade Miller. There is plenty more to come, and we will keep you updated. Our intent is for our monthly newsletter to be a resource for consolidating messages about upcoming meetings, events, and announcements, so that we might minimize and consolidate the emails you receive from PCRW.

This year, I want us to really focus and define our Conservative Republican values, and learn to vocalize them in conversations with others in our world. To that end, we are thrilled to host Lt. Col. Allen West (National Center for Policy Analysis) to speak to us about that very thing in September. Other events are listed in this newsletter.

Gail Capps
